THE Warren Mail says: A woman was put off the cars here the other day because she had no money. She begged enough to get drunk with, became troublesome and was chucked into jail by constable Davis. She plead insanity. Why not treat an insane woman like an insane McFarland, and let her go? This is another outrage on "women's rights."

THE Wilkesbarre correspondent of the Scranton Republican says: "Dr. Hakes says that with the rain on Saturday, May 21st, there was quite a shower of sulphur, of which he gathered up, at his place below Wilkesbarre, some sixty grains and burned them. This is quite an unusual occurrence, and we have not heard that it was noticed anywhere else in this vicinity."

FOUR prisoners left the old jail on Saturday night named Andrew Sayer, Henry Davis, George Tucker and William Logan and the sheriff offers a reward of $25 for each, or $100 for the four. The escape was effected through a hole made in the ceiling, and is another demonstration of the insecurity of the dilapidated old thing. The new jail was not begun too soon—Wilkesbarre Record of the Times.

EDWIN EMBREE, of Wrightsdale, Lancaster county, died on Sunday last from the sting of a honey-bee. He was on a visit to his uncle, Simeon Ballaner, at Oak Dale, and went out in company with one or two others to see the bees. Some of them flew around his head and he retired; just as he reached the porch of the house, one of the bees which continued to follow him, flew in his ear and stung him. In a space of a few minutes he went into convulsions from the wound, and he died in about an hour.

A BOY of eleven years who resides on Church street, West Chester, arose from his bed about three o'clock on Wednesday morning last, went to his window, lifted the sash and jumped to the ground—in his sleep. Fortunately he lit upon his feet upon the soft ground of a bed of flowers in the front yard. He went to the door and rung the bell and awoke his father and mother, who quickly descended and took him in in a somewhat exhausted condition. He was in his night clothes, and the leap was about eighteen feet.

THERE was a family gathering on the 18th day of May, 1870, at the old Homestead in Herrick, Susquehana county, it being the fiftieth anniversary of the wedding of Rev. William Churchill and Bathsheba Williams. Mr. Churchill came to this country from the State of Rhode Island in 1817. Mrs. Churchill is a descendant of Roger Williams, the founder of Rhode Island. They have raised a family of ten children, all of whom were present except James, who died several years ago. They have twenty-five grand children, and one great-grand-child.

THE Pottstown Herald says: Dr. Read was called upon last night to attend the injuries of John Huston, a boy about ten years of age, who had whilst asleep walked out of the third story window of a dwelling on Lafayette street. How the boy escaped sudden death is almost miraculous, as he appears to have fallen head fore-most, striking the step, which fortunately was wood, and breaking therefrom a piece of the same two or three inches in length. The injuries received amount to contusion above the eye, concussion of the brain, and a sprained back. A person in the adjoining room heard the fall and went to the boy's assistance. The accident occurred at one o'clock in the night.

ABOUT nine weeks ago Miss Margaret Dabaugh, of Harrisburg, was attacked and bitten in one of her fingers by a ferocious dog. Last Friday she noticed a painful stinging sensation in this finger and arm, and on Saturday the symptoms were so alarming that a physician was called in, who thought he detected hydrophobia. On Sunday morning frightful spasms at frequently occurring intervals were only allayed by chloroform. Most of the physicians of the city visited her, but all pronounced it a case of incurable hydrophobia. Her paroxysms were a sorrowful sight. The mention or sight of a dog drove her into violent spasms, and in one of these a dog entered the room. As soon as she saw the animal she became furiously agitated, and her feelings were only tranquilized when the dog was removed. She foamed much at the mouth, exhibited great nervous irritability, breathed with much difficulty, and appealed piteously to those about her to keep at a distance, as if fearful that she might do them personal injury. From the commencement of the first spasm until drugs were administered, she was confined to a rocking chair, occasionally springing up and carrying it with her. Subsequently she was placed on a sofa and secured until her death. She appeared fully conscious of her dangerous disease. The dog which caused this sad death, died of the same disease shortly after attacking the young lady.

Remarkable Scene in a Church.

A dispute between the trustees and members of the Zion Methodist Church, (colored) at the corner of Bleecker and West Tenth streets, in regard to the pastor, Rev. Mr. Butler, culminated last night in a disgraceful scene. Mr. Butler entered the church, which was crowded, accompanied by two policemen. Another minister had taken his place in the pulpit, who was ordered out, and roughly handled by the police. When Mr. Butler made an attempt to preach the gas was extinguished, and he was forcibly removed. The whole church then became a scene of confusion and uproar, and in the fracas several blows were struck. Capt. Greer and a squad of police from the North precinct, entered the church and put an end to the disgraceful scene by dispersing the congregation and arresting two of the ringleaders. The trouble was occasioned by a difference of opinion as to who shall occupy the pulpit a part of the congregation being in favor of Mr. Butler, while others are decidedly opposed.—N. Y. Eve. Post.

WHILE a party of ladies and gentlemen were enjoying themselves at a picnic a few miles from Colfax Station, on the Indianapolis and Chicago Railroad, on Saturday, the dwelling house of a Mr. Thomas, a short distance from the ground, took fire. The children, (aged respectively eleven, eight and two years,) were playing in the second story, and the older ones, frightened at the flames, ran down stairs, leaving the babe in the upper room. The picknickers hastened to the scene, and upon their arrival, found the house enveloped in flames. In the confusion the babe was not missed until the stairway was almost consumed, and neither parents nor friends of the child seemed willing to risk an attempt to save it. At this stage of affairs, Mr. H. C. Holt, of Chicago, (formerly a resident of Indianapolis,) hastily inquired the location of the room in which the child was left, and wrapping himself in a quilt, dashed up the burning stairs, found the almost suffocated child, and brought it out safely. He had scarcely emerged from the house when the stairs fell, and immediately after the room and second floor followed. Mr. Holt was severely burned, but the child was not at all injured. Too much praise cannot be awarded Mr. Holt for his heroism.

THE New York Herald characterizes the late election in the State of New York, so far as affording a test of the strength of parties as "a Democratic victory which signifies nothing." From official returns from most of the counties, and generally accepted estimates from the rest, it appears that the whole vote cast will not exceed 430,000, against 859,776 cast in 1868, showing a deficiency of 419,776, or about one half of the vote of the State, which loss the stay-at-home Republicans count two hundred and fifty thousand and the Democrats one hundred and eighty thousand.

THE Nevada City Gazette of May 21st says: Mr. Ashburne, of Scotch Flat, informs us that the immense slide on their claim is still moving forward as regularly as a glacier. The mass thus moving is about 2,000 feet long by 500 feet wide; depth unknown. The moving mass occupies about 24 acres of surface.

Unprecedented Outpouring of People on Derby Day—Shocking Slaughter of Jews in Roumania, Turkey.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

GREAT BRITAIN.

EPSOM DOWNS, June 1—4 P. M.—The Derby race was won by Kingcraft coming in first in two heats. Palmerston was in good second and Muster came in third. The second heat was intensely exciting and Kingcraft again came in first followed by Muster and McGregor third.

The Derby of this year has not been exceeded by any of its predecessors. The day was fine, the crowds immense, the race exciting and closely contested, and the result unexpected. At sunset yesterday the people commenced moving to the scene, and up to noon to-day the roads to Downs were filled with teams, on foot, on horseback, and in carriages. All morning the London highway was packed almost solid for four miles from the race course with vehicles of every description. The scene from the grand stand, just before the start, was one of unusual splendor. A fringe of carriages five to ten deep lined the entire circuit, and hundreds of thousands of spectators were crowded between them and the course. Present on the grand stand were the Prince and Princess of Wales and King of Belgium, attended by a large and brilliant throng of nobility and aristocracy; also many members of Parliament, Cabinet ministers, representatives of the Bench and persons eminent in all departments of public life. The course was cleared by mounted policemen with much difficulty, but not far from the appointed time the horses were brought out.

The excitement of the spectators was wrought to the highest pitch by the appearance of the fifteen horses entered for the race. Macgregor, the favorite, was tremendously cheered. All being ready, a good start was obtained, and the horses dashed away. As Macgregor began to fall behind, the greatest astonishment was manifested. When Kingcraft lead, the excitement was intense, and reached its height when he came in winner, with Palmerston second, and Muster close behind, as third.

The race had hardly ended when a drenching shower fell, which lasted but a few moments and was succeeded by bright sunshine. Kingcraft won the race in two minutes and 45 seconds; distance one mile and a half.

Summary—Lord Falmouth's Kingcraft, by King Tom, out of Woodcraft, one; Mr. Crawford's Palmerston, by Bracket out of Reta, two; Lord Welton's Muster, by Tim Whiffler, out of Chamade, three. Time of winner 2:45.

Dispatches from Athens state the investigation into the late massacre is progressing. The Court of Inquiry is in session daily. Ex-Prime Minister Soutzas was summoned before the court, and subjected to a rigid examination as to his own course and action of the government before and after the tragedy. The testimony is not made public. The last surviving member of the band of brigands who perpetrated the slaughter has been captured.

TURKEY.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 1.—A fearful war of religious intolerance has broken out in Roumania, a metropolitan province of the Turkish empire. For some time the native Christians have manifested a spirit of fearful vindictiveness against the Jewish population, who have endeavored to obtain from the Government some protection against outrage and extortion. A secret movement has been in organization for some time for the extermination of the inoffensive Jews. The deep and deadly hatred of the bigoted populace had only been slumbering and awaiting vent for its fury. On Sunday last, by a preconcerted signal, the Christian populace rose, and a fearful work of butchery was inaugurated. At an early hour all the houses of the Jews were invaded, and the occupants who were unable to escape were massacred in cold blood. The fleeing Israelites were pursued through town by an armed mob and murdered wherever caught, men, women and children. The fury of the populace was inflamed with religious bigotry and only exhausted itself for want of victims. In all the principal towns the fearful work of buthery prevailed, and thousands of men, women and children of the repugnant class were butchered. The work of slaughter still goes on in the interior, and nothing has been heard yet of any movement by the authorities to suppress it. The reigning Prince is absent from the province, and advantage was taken of this to complete the extermination of all the Jews from the province. Prince Charles is hurrying home, and energetic measures will at once be taken by the Sultan to suppress this religious emeute. Meanwhile the fury of the mob continues unabated in finding fresh victims to glut its insatiate frenzy.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

OMAHA, June 1.—The school teachers' excursion party from California arrived here this P. M. about three o'clock, all well and expressing themselves highly pleased with the trip. They number about three hundred, of whom seventy-five are "school marms."

The Herald's Winnebago Indian agency correspondent, writing on the 29th ultimo, states that "there has been a written statement this day signed by over forty prominent members of that tribe, acknowledging the murder and decapitation of Mr. Munson, on Plum Creek, May 18, by five of their number. One of their leading chiefs, White Breast, is preparing a full written statement relative to his son, who was one of the five. They say they know they will suffer, but the deed was committed under the command of their Medicine man, who said they must have human blood to appease the departed spirits of their relatives."

XLIST CONGRESS.

(SECOND SESSION.)

WASHINGTON, June 1, 1870.

SENATE.

Mr. EDMUNDS, from the Committee on Pensions, reported, with amendments, the House bill to regulate the duties of pension agents and to provide for the payment of pensions.

Mr. EDMUNDS, from Committee on Judiciary, reported, with amendments, the bill to regulate judicial proceedings in various cases.

The following bills were reported from the Judiciary Committee adversely and postponed indefinitely:

Bill providing for the settlement of Indian claims by a commission.

Joint resolution declaring void any action of State Legislatures as to constitutional amendments after the Secretary of State has received evidence of their ratification by three-fourths of the States.

Joint resolution to enable the Secretary of the Treasury to collect abandoned property and direct dues belonging to the United States.

Mr. TRUMBULL, from the same Committee, reported, without amendment, House bill extending the time in which pension and bounty frauds may be prosecuted.

Mr. NYE, from the Committee on Territories, reported, without amendment, House bill to annul a statute of New Mexico.

Mr. SCHURZ, from the same Committee, reported, without amendment, the House bill annulling certain acts of Idaho Territory.

The bill to change judicial circuits was discussed, amended and passed. It constitutes the circuits as follows: 1st, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut; 2d, New York; 3d, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and Virginia; 4th, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas and Arkansas; 5th, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama and Tennessee; 6th, Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky and West Virginia; 7th, Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin; 8th, Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri; 9th, California, Oregon and Nevada. The Supreme Court Justices, except the Chief Justice, are required to reside in their respective circuits, and the Chief Justice is to be known as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

The Senate went into Executive session and adjourned at 7 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

After some discussion it was agreed that the Committee on Banking and Currency, which was to have to-day for its business, should instead have next Tuesday.

Mr. ARNELL, from Committee on Education, desired to report back and have put on passage Mr. Lawrence's bill authorizing U. S. Marshals to appoint women as census takers, but Mr. WOOD objected.

Mr. STEVENS presented a petition of citizens and business men of Cincinnati relative to taxes on tobacco and remonstrating against the increase of tax on smoking tobacco.

Mr. COX presented a petition of New York tobacco manufacturers, for a uniform tax of sixteen cents per pound on all manufactured tobacco and snuff.

The House proceeded to the consideration of the bill to reduce internal taxes.

The sixteenth section was amended by allowing a discount of ten per cent. on proprietary stamps supplied by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue on excess above $500 purchased at one time.

In the course of the discussion in regard to penalties for washing defaced stamps, Mr. SCHENCK stated it was the intention of the Committee of Ways and Means to wipe out the whole system of spies and informers, and allow no more moieties.

The section relating to stamps was amended by striking out a portion of the paragraph as to bank checks, leaving it to read: Bank check, draft or order for payment of any sum of money whatsoever, drawn upon any bank, banker or trust company, two cents.

In the course of the discussion, Mr. SARGENT stated that an estimate he had received from the Treasury Department showed that under the existing tariff and revenue laws there would be received into the Treasury next year from customs $185,000,000, from internal taxes $175,000,000, from lands $5,000,000, from miscellaneous sources $2,800,000, making a total of $393,000,000. The estimated expenditures were $291,000,000, which would leave a surplus of $102,000,000. A few days ago he had introduced a proposition to reduce the customs ten per cent., and internal revenue taxes fifteen per cent., to take off the income tax and to abolish all special taxes. This would leave a surplus of $22,400,000 per year, and he had calculated that sum used as a sinking fund would in thirty-four years extinguish the national debt and leave a surplus.

Mr. HOLMAN moved, but the House, by 65 to 112, refused, to strike out section twenty-eight, containing schedule B, relating to stamps.

Sections twenty-one and twenty-two were transposed.

An additional section was inserted, providing that in States where respondents are allowed to testify, the same right shall exist for persons charged with violation of the law.

The tax on matches was struck out, 87 to 84, but the vote was subsequently reconsidered, and the proposition to strike out rejected, 89 to 94.

On motion of Mr. SCHENCK, the thirty-third section was struck out, it being provided for elsewhere.

Section thirty-fifth, in relation to income tax, having been reached, Mr. McCARTHY moved to strike it out, and argued it was not necessary to the revenue or to the strength of the national credit.

Mr. BLAIR opposed the motion to strike it out. He favored, however, an increase of exemption from $1500, as provided in the bill, to $3000.

Mr. KELLEY moved to strike out all sections and provisions relating to income tax.

Mr. BUTLER advocated the removal of the tax.

Messrs. COX and DAVIS followed on the same side.

Mr. COX moved to reduce the rate from five to three per cent.

On a division there were 72 voting for and 74 against it.

The Speaker suggested it was the desire of members generally to postpone action on test questions until the debate was ended, and that arrangement was made, including Mr. Cox's amendment.

Mr. HAWLEY moved to increase the exemption from $1,500 to $2,500.

Mr. KERR moved to increase the exemption to $2,000 and advocated a reduction of the tax to three per cent.

After considerable discussion, in which Mr. SCHENCK opposed the amendments and defended the item as it stands in the bill, the House, without action, adjourned.

Reunited Presbyterian General Assembly.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—The morning session of the Presbyterian General Assembly was occupied in the consideration of reports from various committees.

The delegation to visit the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church at Louisville presented a report and communication from the Southern Assembly, in reply to the overtures of this body. The communication states that the church does not approve of union with the Northern Church, because it is a total surrender of all fundamental doctrines and embraces all shades of belief. The Southern Church is the only surviving heir of the true unfailing testimonies, and there are impassible barriers to official intercourse between the two churches.

The delegation also submitted its own report, showing what action had been taken at Louisville.

Several of the representatives then present made speeches, showing what the spirit of the Southern Assembly had been. It was thought the opinion of that Assembly was not the opinion of the Southern churches.

The report of the committee was received, and the committee discharged.

The election of Trustees for the various institutions was made the order for Friday afternoon.

At the afternoon session Gen. E. M. Gregory offered the report of the Committee on Freedmen, showing the total funds during the year to have been $52,907; balance May 13, $3,878. The statistics were listened to with interest.

The report of the Finance Committee was then considered and it was, on motion of Dr. Bently, so divided that so much of it as relates to missionary boards be referred to a select Committee of twenty-one to report to next General Assembly on the mode of carrying out the suggestions agreed on by the Committee.

Sundry amendments were made to other portions of the report, but without action. Adjourned.

Serious Railroad Accident—Six Men Killed and Many Badly Injured.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PATERSON, N. J., June 1.—A frightful railway accident occurred this morning about two and a half miles from this place. The construction train on the Delaware, Lackawana and Western Railroad was precipitated from a trestle bridge thirty feet high. The master carpenter Campbell and six other carpenters were instantly killed, and between thirty and forty workmen were shockingly mutilated. The scene baffles description. Many men are buried in the ruins. The moans and cries still fill the air.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

NEW YORK, June 1.—A frightful railroad accident occurred this morning at 9 o'clock, about two and a half miles from Paterson, N. J., by which the construction train on the Delaware, Lackawana and Western Railroad was precipitated from a trestle bridge a distance of thirty feet, and several people killed and wounded. The train, on which was a large force of laborers, passed along visiting places where repairs were necessary. Several places had been attended to and the train was passing over the trestle bridge at the point where the Newark road intersects the railroad, when the bridge gave way and the entire train was precipitated to the depths below. The Master Carpenter, Mr. Campbell, and six other carpenters were instantly killed. Some thirty or forty workmen were shockingly injured, being bruised and crushed by masses of iron, timber and debris. The scene baffles description. Many workmen are buried in the ruins, and it is believed death will ensue speedily in the case of many.

—Two more Fenian officers, Fitzpatrick and McNeil, were arrested by the U. S. Marshal, at Malone, Tuesday night. Several New York reporters have also been arrested as Fenians and sent to prison.

SANDWICH ISLANDS RECIPROCITY.

The Senate, in executive session, resumed the consideration of the Sandwich Islands treaty. Mr. Stewart took the floor and spoke in favor of the ratification. The debate was continued by various Senators in a desultory manner, each speaking for a few minutes only, until late in the afternoon, when Mr. Cole delivered an argument of half an hour in favor of the ratification, and Mr. Sumner closed the discussion with a brief speech on the same side. A vote being taken, resulted, for ratification 20, against ratification 19, and two-thirds not voting in the affirmative, the treaty was not ratified. A large number of Senators were paired.

HAD A TALK.

Spotted Tail and party had a talk with Commissioner Parker to-day. They want to be removed to White Earth reservation, to be allowed the privilege of spreading out and hunting buffalo and have stock sent among them. General Parker expressed the President's desire for peace, but explained to them the power of the Government and its ability to protect its people. The Indians persist they have no other desire than to be at peace with the whites. There will be a grand council in a few days.

Cable Company Squabble—Reformed Presbyterian Synod—Chloroformed and Robbed—Mandamus on the Mayor of Brooklyn—Nilsson—Obituary.

NEW YORK, June 1, 1870.

CABLE COMPANY DIFFICULTY.

A few disaffected stockholders of the East India Cable Company to-day elected a new Board of Directors for the ensuing year, and propose to attempt to displace the present management.

The French cable operators were to-day all discharged in consequence of the removal of the office to the Western Union building.

REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD.

In the Reformed Presbyterian Synod to-day the report of the Theological Seminary at Pittsburgh was read, asking the expurgation of the turrieine from the list of studies, on the plea of its being intricate, difficult of comprehension. It was decided to retain the book. A committee was appointed to attend the Anti-sect Society Convention to be held in Chicago on the 9th.

At the evening session there was a discussion on a motion to rescind the resolution of the previous Synod, suspending Rev. John Scott, of Indiana, from the ministry for alleged scandal. The motion was lost. A resolution condemning secret societies as deleterious to society was adopted. The Board of Education reported thirteen colored students from Mississippi, Georgia, Missouri, Pennsylvania and Ohio being educated at Northwood, Ohio, ten being supported by the church.

Democratic State Convention—Ticket Nominated and Platform Adopted—Temperance Convention also Nominate a State Ticket.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

COLUMBUS, June 1.—The Democratic State Convention met at the Opera House at 11 o'clock A. M. to-day. The attendance was not as large as usual for a State Convention of this party. D. J. Callin was elected temporary Chairman and the following Committee on Resolutions appointed: First District, O. J. Dodds; Second, E. A. Ferguson; Third, F. Greer; Fourth, J. F. McKinney; Fifth, G. W. Andrews; Sixth, Thos. Powell; Seventh, J. E. Wright; Eighth, B. Burns; Ninth, Thos. Burns; Tenth, Frank H. Hurd; Eleventh, A. Vance; Twelfth, W. E. Finck; Thirteenth, Wm. Parr; Fourteenth, John Cowan; Fifteenth, J. W. Williams; Sixteenth, Jas. B. Jamison; Seventeenth, R. G. Woods; Eighteenth, Morrison Foster; Nineteenth, J. Palmer.

After recess Hon. D. D. Campbell was elected permanent Chairman.

The following ticket was nominated: Secretary of State, Wm. Heisly, of Cleveland; Supreme Judge, R. A. Harrison, of London; Comptroller of Treasury, Jno. H. Heaton, of Belmont; Member of Board of Public Works, Wm. Spencer, of Licking.

Gen. Geo. Waldrews, of Auglaize county, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, submitted the following platform of principles:

The Democracy of Ohio, coming together in the spirit of devotion to the doctrine and faith of free representative government, and relying for success upon discussion and the intelligence of the people, deem the present Convention a fitting occasion to reassert the following time-honored principles of the Democratic party:

That the Federal Government is one of limited powers, derived solely from the Constitution; that the grants of power made therein ought to be strictly construed by all the dependents and agents of the Government, and that it is inexpedient and dangerous to exercise doubtful powers.

That the Constitution of the United States is founded on the fundamental principles of entire and absolute equality of all the States of the Union, and it is not competent for Congress to impose upon them any conditions or restrictions, in respect to their internal concerns, which the Federal Constitution has not imposed.

That the liberal principles embodied by Jefferson in the Declaration of Independence, and sanctioned in the Constitution which made ours the land of liberty and the asylum of the oppressed of every nation, have ever been the cardinal principles of the Democratic faith, and every attempt to abridge the privileges of becoming citizens and the owners of soil among us ought to be resisted with the same spirit which swept the alien and sedition laws from our statute books.

And in order that we may more distinctly declare our views of the measures and policy of the present Administration,

Resolved, That we denounce the present tariff, as well as the substitute lately introduced in the House of Representatives from the Committee of Ways and Means, as a gigantic robbery of the labor and industry of the country; that they are solely designed to advance the interests of a few thousand monopolies, and that this should no longer be submitted to; and that no candidate for Congress, nor any other office, is worthy support who is not in favor of a low revenue tariff which closely approximates to free trade; that in the arrangement of any revenue tariff all the necessaries of life should be absolutely free of duty.

Resolved, That the internal revenue system of the United States is unendurable in its oppressive exactions, that it should be immediately remodeled; that its annoyance of stamps and licenses and taxes upon sales and incomes should be abolished; that the tax itself should be collected by the State and county officials; and that the multiplication of officers is wholly unnecessary, except to eat out the resources of the tax-payers; and that we pledge ourselves to effect a thorough reform in this particular.

Resolved, That we denounce the profligacy in the present administration of the Federal Government, the corruption which has entered all its official stations, the favoritism which, overlooking fitness for office, has appointed to positions of public trust the friends or tools of those who control the public patronage, and the imbecility which directs the destinies of the Republic without an apparent purpose and manages its affairs with such embarrassment and disaster to the material interests of its people at home, and with such disregard of the rights and liberties of its citizens abroad.

Resolved, That land monopoly is one of the great evils of our country and against the spirit of our institutions; that the whole of our public lands ought to be held as a sacred trust to secure homesteads for actual settlers. We therefore denounce the recent action of Congress in making grants to mammoth railroad corporations, which are already too powerful and may become dangerous to a free people.

Resolved, That we regard the act recently passed by Congress to enforce the Fifteenth Amendment as unconstitutional, unjust and oppressive, an invasion of the rights of the States, subversive of the best interests of the people, and therefore demand its unconditional repeal.

Resolved, That the power of the Federal Government to assess and collect taxes on the bonds of the United States is clear and unquestioned, and we demand of Congress that a share of taxation, equal to the fair average amount levied in each State on money loaned, shall be assessed and collected from all investments in bonds.

Resolved, That we are opposed to the system of National Banks, and demand the immediate repeal of the law creating them, and that in place of the notes of such banks Treasury notes of the United States shall be substituted.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Ohio sympathize with the efforts of all people struggling for self-government, and we denounce the truckling of the Federal Administration to Great Britain and Spain, and the efforts of the party in power to reduce whole States in our Union to a condition of vassalage to the General Government.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Democracy of Ohio are extended to our Senator, Allen G. Thurman, and the Democratic Representatives in Congress, who, though in a small minority, have bravely contended for the principles of Democracy and the interests of the people.

That upon the foregoing platform we cordially invite all the electors of Ohio, without regard to past differences, to vote for the ticket this day nominated.

The resolutions were adopted with but few dissenting voices.

After a short speech by Mr. Heisley, the Convention adjourned.

The Democratic State Central Committee this evening appointed the following Executive Committee: John G. Thompson, Dr. H. C. Helmick, John G. McGuffey, Jacob Rienhard, and Levi Wilson.

PROTECTION AS A LIVE ISSUE.

The suggestion that "protection is the only live issue" between the two political parties, at this time, is not warranted by the facts. These great organizations are at variance upon other points, and eminently so upon all the collateral or secondary questions which rise in the adjustment of the political, social and financial results of the national convulsion of 1861-'65. Party lines, as they have been recognized for ten years past, can not be obliterated or ignored, until our people shall come to be all of one mind touching the national policy on these points. Until then, the Republican flag must float high over every quarter of the field, rallying under its folds the great party of the Union.

But nevertheless, we are far from disparaging the prime political importance of the doctrine of protection for American industry. It is not the "only live issue," but it is certainly one of the live issues of the hour. And it is essentially Republican. Had it never been specified in a single "platform" of our party conventions, we must ascribe the omission to the pressure of other issues of more instant importance of the moment, and not to any disposition, on the part of representative Republicans, at any hour no matter how early, to impeach the logical sequence of the protective idea from the vital conditions of a true and thorough Republicanism. The issue of personal liberty, the duty of vindicating the God-given right of personal equality before the law to be the franchise of all classes and condition of American citizens; presented then certainly a loftier, as it did a more urgent question. Having finally adjusted that, to the honor of Republican freedom, and with the approving judgment of the civilized world, we descend to the next but inevitable step. Having liberated the Republic, striking off the last manacles as well from the souls as from the bodies of its citizens, having expunged from its white escutcheon of freedom, absolute and equal for all, the last blot which yet lingered to remind the Christian world that the greatest had also been, through three-fourths of the first century of its existence, the most servile of free Republics, it remains to guard that work carefully until time, and habit, and the progressive thought of the whole people, shall have come to fortify its results with the hard solidity of an unchangeable maturity.

The next duty of Republicanism is to Americanize the nation which it has liberated. The Republic is for freemen and for Americans. The nationality which we have purified from its stains must be intensified in all its proper domestic obligations. Saved, it must be revivified; the solid and just foundation, which we laid with so much of suffering, cementing it in the blood of more than a third of a million of human sacrifices, awaits the rising fabric of a symmetrical, self-contained, self-supported Republican nationality. How bitter and exhausting was that struggle, which it cost us to prove that the Republic could come up true to its own great charter of freedom! It was the sublimest act achieved by any people in all the annals of the race, to purge, and renovate, and perfect its own nationality, to make clear its title to a specific and honorable individuality in the family of nations.

The long and successful step which has brought us, at this hour, to an homogeneous and compact nationality, is not to mark a final pause in the American policy. Resulting duties open before us, which it would be folly, criminality, to disregard. To foster, stimulate, encourage, lift up, each national interest, that our free people may be strong in their independence,—to enable the American Republic to maintain this individuality alike through the arts of peace and the ability for war—to remember that our freedom is for ourselves, and our sleepless vigilance for every foreign power which regards our institutions as not only alien but hostile to the theory of its own,—to be warned by every lesson of that history which teaches us, through all the generations, that the true patriot's duty looks only to God, his country and the truth, and that no nation has prospered which has failed to regard its first duty to itself,—this is the Republicanism which urges upon us now its leading obligations.

The protective principle has a breadth and depth, and height which no transient, narrower, specific consideration of the moment should control. It signifies that at all times, under all conditions, in the face of all momentary tempations, the Republic should prefer its own interests to those of its neighbors. We are for the American people first, last, all the time. The nation has no industry that we would fail to protect, against all the world, as faithfully as we would assert any and every right common to the whole mass of its industries. We stand now, on this point, where the Republic has stood in its most prosperous past; the doctrines, to which our fathers adhered, which have been expounded by our greatest statesmen, and which the people, upon a full consideration, never yet failed to uphold, are the true doctrines for this hour, the wisest and most practical doctrines for a people which becomes more and more thoroughly republicanized in the onward movement of the national life. These are the doctrines of an enlightened patriotism; call it selfishness, if you will, but it is a selfishness which has no narrower limits than the extremest bounds of the Republic.

Yet a very active and clamorous school of theorists endeavors to make the American people forget or forego their first duty to themselves. We are urged to sacrifice production to consumption, that our consumers may be wholly dependent upon other producing nations. Free-trade is recommended to us, in the interest of the foreigner, who carefully excludes all productive competitions from his own markets so long as his own industries can supply them. Inside of that limit, every government in Europe is intensely self-protective. England, for example, which attempts to shape our domestic policy for us, admits nothing of American production to compete injuriously with her own industries. Her corn laws even forbade the importation of food for her people, until her own markets reached starvation prices. And it was not until, under the growth of her manufacturing interests, her consumption began to leave production hopelessly in the rear, that she abrogated that extremely protective system. Her national jealousy of any foreign interference with the least of her productive interests is a ruling feature of her political economy, in every particular, up to this hour. It is only for her excess of production that she asks for free trade.

People who fancy that this free trade cry will be popular in this country in the long run, will find themselves mistaken. If they should for a moment succeed in impressing their ideas upon the National policy, it can only be because the people having forgotten the lessons of the past, await the striking instruction which a brief experience will certainly bring to them. Two years' trial of free trade would cure that delusion for the next generation. We have no desire to see the experiment made, for we already know what mischiefs have been wrought to us, in former years, by disarming our domestic industries and leaving them naked to the mercies of a foreign rivalry at starvation prices. We protest against these old theories, more than once exploded, but now tinkered up and palmed off upon us for new, as heresies most unsound in principle, most fatal in practice, most un-republican for the American people.

We perceive, and acknowledge with pain, that these ideas have been adopted by a respectable number of the American people. They are advocated with considerable zeal and wrong headed ability by a certain class of politicians and journalists. We shall not impeach their integrity by insisting that their exertions are paid for in cash, by foreign agents; we prefer to presume that these gentlemen are honest in their delusions, and to wish that they could study common sense more and Bastiat less. They have contrived to infect a portion of our Western people with their heresies, but have been still more successful, by the use, perhaps, of still more effective arguments, in corrupting the judgments of a minority in Congress. But we can say to them all that they are grossly over-estimating the popular support upon which they appear to count.

Time was when the West was more protective even than the East. The present generation is not familiar with this question, but their fathers understood it thoroughly. Then, under the instructive leadership of HENRY CLAY, in the great States of Ohio, and all the Northwest, in Missouri, Kentucky and down to the Gulf of Mexico, the protective principle was dear to every Whig. In 1844, it would have elected MR. CLAY to the Presidency except for the defection of New York upon a side issue. It was the most popular and the best understood political question of that day. It presented the strongest positions for the party in all the Western States. It was the chief corner stone of the Whig policy. Wherever and however assailed, it was always handsomely vindicated to the popular intelligence, and by the popular devotion. Then, the question seemed to pass out of politics, not because free-trade ideas were gaining friends, but yielding to the imminent pressure of a most exciting sectional agitation, which began to loom up in '44, which soon expelled other issues from the public attention, and which has since culminated and been adjusted as, thank Heaven, we all know how!

But we can tell gentlemen, who incline now to reopen the discussion upon the American doctrine of protection, that they must not flatter themselves too much. They are trifling with a sleeping lion. It will tear them yet. We care not how soon the issue is made. We know the temper and appreciate the intelligence of the people better than they do. In all the wide field of domestic politics, outside of the domestic or foreign relations of the Union, there is no question upon which its friends will find themselves so strong, before an average constituency, as upon this eminently Republican issue, of the defence and development of all American industrial interests. Until its merits shall be illustrated fully, either by discussion or by a brief experience of the opposing heresy, anti-protectionists may win a triumph or two. But never, where the just bearings of the protective doctrine have been faithfully explained to the electors. We do not think there can be one close district in any State of the Northwest, that a protectionist cannot carry against an anti-protectionist next Autumn. Republicans of restless temperaments, and in love with the specious theories of books, who, in Ohio, or others of those States, think it good policy now to cut themselves loose from an eminently Republican and most popular, because most thoroughly American, principle, will yet find themselves in the vocative. The day is not very distant when this may indeed present "the only live issue" between the parties, and then each man will go to his own. Who doubts where the Republican masses will then stand? Or where the Democracy will be placed, over against us? Gentlemen of Republican antecedents, and who are sincere in their attachment to the great party of Union and Liberty, are preparing themselves for strange bed-fellows, if they did but know it. Let them look well to their own future! Let them look narrowly into the Western politics of twenty-five and thirty years ago! Let them not forget that the America of the present is far more intensely national than anything known to the Republic, even in those other days when the arguments and eloquence of the statesman of Ashland so thoroughly riveted the love of the people of the West upon the American System! Even the eloquence and logic of CLAY were not as convincing then, in illustration of a national duty toward national interests, as are the teachings of the last ten years' history to our thoroughly republicanized people. We tell gentlemen of Republican habits, but of free trade proclivities, that the people have no partiality for foreign ideas of any school. No doctrine can be too American to suit the public taste, and no denationalized philosophy of any sort can be made to go down their throats, or kept down for any length of time.

If Ohio, and Indiana, and Illinois Republicans flatter themselves that anti-protection is going to be popular, let them try it on. They will suffer the consequences as well as we. But they cannot take the party with them. The Republican party, as an organization, depleted perhaps in its ranks by desertions of some after false standards, will still remain an American party, and, purged of its heretical visionaries, the party of protection for American industry. Under that sign, it will march, it may be, with some early discomfitures, to ultimate victories. The party which liberated the Republic will live again in its renewed strength and purer, more faithful nationality.

We speak at least for Pennsylvania. She is Republican to the heart, and for protection in the very marrow of her bones. Do gentlemen, in Ohio and other States in the West, suppose that any party will long succeed in controlling the Federal government without the support of this great Commonwealth? Do they expect our aid in 1872? Can they get along without that aid? It will be with them, only on the single condition that the Republican candidate of that year shall stand squarely in favor of protection to home industry, as against all the rest of the world. Arrange your platforms, gentlemen, to suit yourselves! Go back, if you will, upon the principle which your fathers comprehended and loved, which has underlain the struggles and victories of the last ten years of the national life, but you cannot take Pennsylvania with you. You can have no candidate so alluring in his individual attractions, no platform so interesting in its specific assertions or its abstract principles, as to make the people of the Old Keystone forget or be faithless to a principle which they understand, accept, and have for two generations adopted. If you can afford to throw away our electoral votes, to indulge an abstract hobby which the more sensible English and French have kicked out of their ports as fit only for foreign consumption—then go ahead, and you will see what will come of it if you discredit our timely warning.

Another Canadian Trouble--The Fire on the Saguenay River--Nearly Seven Hundred Families Homeless--Sufferings--Seeking Safety in the Swamps.

The Quebec Chronicle of the 27th has an account of the great fire which has been raging on the Saguenay River, as follows:

On the afternoon of the 19th inst., a tremendous conflagration was reported along the Saguenay River. From Mistassinie to St. Alphonse the greatest part of the habitations are destroyed by fire, and over 5,000 persons are without shelter and deprived of everything. Six lives were lost. The total number of families who are destitute is 655. The fire covered an area of about five miles wide by thirty-six in length, and extended from Lake St. John to Chicoutimi. All the buildings were destroyed by fire between 2 o'clock in the afternoon and 9 o'clock in the evening of the same day. We learn, through Mr. Tremblay, M. P., for Chicoutimi, who has just returned from the burned district, that the fire in its ravages swept everything before it, and has left the number of families above quoted in absolute poverty and ruin. The fire travelled in a circuitous direction, covering over 1,500 miles in superfices, and 100 miles from one extreme point to the other. This irregular course, it is supposed, is attributable to the wind, which changed three or four times while the fire was going on. The poor people who were so unexpectedly driven from their happy and comfortable homes had to seek shelter in the swamps and underground places, as every building standing within the march of the fire was leveled to the ground. Some of the sufferings which the poor inhabitants had to endure are painful to contemplate. One poor woman who had passed through the pains of child-birth but a few hours before the fire had reached her domicile, was removed, with the new born infant, by the husband to a swamp, where she passed the night alone, as the husband had returned to the house to save some of his wearing apparel, but found in the mean time that the fire had cut off the communication with the swamp where his wife sought shelter. Another man, finding escape impossible, jumped into his well, where he passed the whole night and part of the following day, while the fire swept over his head. Even here the heat at times became so intense that he was compelled occasionally to slip below the surface of the water to avoid being scorched. A number of families sought shelter on the lake shore, but were compelled to wade into it over the waist, as the fire in its ravages had burnt up everything down to the very edge of the water.

Discouraging Chinese Immigration--Action of the Six Companies.

[From the San Francisco Bulletin.]

The Chinese Six Companies, of this city, is a combination which possesses considerable authority here and in China. Shortly after the arrival of the last steamer from that country, the leading men of the association here, seeing about 1,300 of their countrymen landed, called a meeting at which a circular was prepared setting forth the reasons why Chinamen and Chinawomen should cease emigrating to this country. Copies of this circular will be posted in the principal towns and cities of the Empire, for the information of all classes.

It is a long document, but the substance of it is, that California and the adjoining States are not what they formerly were, so far as the facilities for making money are concerned; that very few Chinamen can obtain more than a bare subsistence, and that only the merchants are able to accumulate riches. The opinion prevails generally in China that the placer mines of this State afford a good field for the labors of the immigrant. The circular states that these mines do not pay any longer, as a general thing, and that if Chinese miners chance to make money in them there is great danger that they will be robbed of their earnings and driven out of their mines by thieves and robbers. They say their people are not respected, but are put down to the level of cattle and horses; they are in constant danger of violence and suffer ill usage in every part of the State. They say of the threats of riot and bloodshed, that they consider the most of them as idle talk, but would not do anything to provoke an attempt to execute them. The condition of the people is described; that thousands of them are without work; can get none, and are destitute of food and other necessaries of life; that the merchants have extended temporary relief to some, but that all cannot be aided. For these and other reasons they deprecate the policy of sending any more Chinamen here. Of the female immigrants they say that the women who have come here have brought infinite disgrace, not only on themselves, but on the most respectable Chinese here. They also are advised to stay at home. The chief men of the six Companies think the issuance of the circular will tend to retard very much the further influx of their countrymen into America; and it certainly does not afford a very attractive picture of their present condition and prospects.

An Infernal Crime.

The crime charged against a man named Lange, a dealer in picture frames in this city, is one that should give him a pre-eminence in the criminal catalogue for diabolical intent. He shipped a box in April last on the New Orleans steamer and secured an insurance upon it of one thousand six hundred and fifty dollars, and the box proved to have been prepared with explosive and inflammable material, and was only prevented from burning the ship by the watchfulness and activity of the Captain. In the box were vessels of alcohol, gasoline and turpentine, and the fire was apparently to have been set to these by a chemical that would explode with slight friction. The friction was provided for by mice shut in a box, who, in gnawing their way out, were to have fired the train that might have destroyed the ship and all her company at sea. Here then is, if the charges prove true, a man who deliberately contrives that awful calamity, fire, on a ship at sea—contrives the possible frightful death of twenty or thirty persons—to secure the small prize of sixteen hundred dollars insurance money. He should be tried by a jury of sea captains and sailors. It is a remarkable coincidence that this crime was attempted against the steamer George Washington, while some years since a crime of the same nature was contrived in the shipment of goods on the Mississippi steamer Martha Washington. —N. Y. Herald.

Is the Council Infallible Also?

The Cardinals elect a Pope; and it is said, not without a good deal of intrigue and preliminary bargaining.

The Pope appoints the Bishops and Archbishops and other dignitaries of his sect.

These persons meet together in council, and proceed to declare the man who appointed them, and who was appointed by the Cardinals, infallible.

The question, whether or not the Pope is infallible, is now debated in the Council; and is presently to be put to vote. The adherents of the new dogma are calling in all the absentees of their side, to secure a majority; for it depends upon the members of the Council, appointed by the Pope, to decide whether he, who was elected by the Cardinals, is indeed infallible.

But in that case the infallibility of the Pope depends, after all, on the infallibility of the Bishops and others who compose the Council. If they are liable to error, who can tell whether they may not vote wrongly on this question?

But as the Pope appointed them, unless he is infallible he may have made mistakes, and then again the verdict of the Council would not be conclusive.

And so on, around to the beginning again.—N. Y. Eve. Post.

THE Zanesville Courier says: Saturday night, between nine and ten o'clock, an inoffensive colored man, a stranger, while seated in the Market House, was assaulted by three men, who struck him with bricks and stones, cutting his head in a shocking manner. Breaking away from his assailants, this much abused colored man ran up Market street, shouting murder, and butted an aged and venerable citizen in the bread basket, nearly putting a stop to his earthly career. One of the parties to the outrage was subsequently housed.

WHAT MUST BE WORN.

SUMMER MANTLES.

Short paletots and long casaques of black gros grain are the accepted wrappings of the season. The Metternich mantle has fallen into disfavor, as it is too heavy-looking for summer wear. Ponson's heaviest gros grains, with thick distinct reps, and flatte-threaded fallies, are used for these garments. The most stylish paletots have a sloped seam down the centre, nearly fitting the garment to the figure, and doing away with the loose baggy look of the sailor jacket. The collar is the square Marie Antoinette shape, or else long revers are made to reach nearly to the belt. If the figure is very full, neither of these are used, the neck being merely cut heart shaped, and finished with a lace ruche. The front of the garment is not always cut away to form a point, but is merely turned under, and may be worn high at times. Ladies of refinement do not go into the streets with their necks exposed. They wear ruffs and cravat bows that fill up the opening of the low-throated dresses, and cover that part of the neck which is left uncovered in the house. Casaques are very long, often reaching to the edge of the dress skirt when draped. They are made to look voluminously full by the addition of two, and sometimes three, widths of the material at the back. These widths are fastened to the waist by a band which is concealed beneath a short basque that is cut in one piece with the body.

WRAPPINGS.

The most elegant wrappings of the season are casaques of China crape. These are often made as parts of suits, and of the color of the silk dress with which they are worn; but black China crape casaques are far more distinguished looking, and at the same time more useful, as they may be worn with white, gray or ecru dresses as well as black. It is not, however, considered stylish this season to wear bright blue, green and striped skirts with black over dress.

SUMMER SUITS.

Ladies who prefer trained skirts for the house have their suits made with a single skirt and casaque, and always change their costume upon coming from the street; but those who make the same suit answer for both house and street, prefer two skirts and a paletot, as the single skirt would look too plain for indoor wear when the casaque is removed.

HOW TO MAKE THEM.

The most simply constructed upper skirts are most stylish. There should be no set pieces at the sides trimmed all around, and no pannier puffs behind. They should be very long, fuller than the underskirt, and are frequently draped at the sides, the back hanging plainly or being opened in the center and trimmed to the belt. Forty inches is the average length of the black overskirts, says an experienced modiste. This is in many cases as long as the lower skirt, consequently the upper skirt must be draped by tapes attached under the belt and buttoned over loops half way down the seams. Square tunic skirts are made of four straight widths of three-quarter goods shaped longer toward the back, left plainly open in front, simply trimmed all around, and draped in the way just described. Apron fronts are now made of a straight width of three-quarter goods and a single side gore rounded up to the belt. The front width is not sloped in the least, is scantily gathered to the belt, extending far back on the sides, while the narrow side gore is very full at the belt. The long back widths are then sewed to the sides, where the only drapery is made by gathering up the side seam from three fingers below to a very small space just beneath the belt. This makes the apron fit smoothly and flat over the stomach, and gives the increased size necessary on the hips. If it produce a fold or two, or wrinkle across the lower part of the apron, these are not objectionable. Short palets like Medici or Caprice almost invariably accompany French suits of summer materials. A blouse corsage is made to wear in the house if the goods are thin, a plain waist with darts if it is thick. In very warm weather these will be worn on the streets without a wrap, and when worn with a bouffant overskirt have the effect of a casaque.

SUITS OF BROWN OR BUFF LINEN,

made with two skirts and a paletot, are trimmed with flat pleatings of linen. Each pleat, an inch wide, is cut in leaf pattern at the lower edge, then needle-worked in tiniest notches, and pieced over narrow pleatings of white muslin that are basted beneath, and show a couple of inches below the colored pleats. These white pleatings beneath colored ruffles are quite a feature of French dresses. Made of Swiss muslin they are placed beneath black and gray silk flounces, of tarlatan, beneath grenadine and Chambery gauzes, both colored and black; and of muslin, beneath cambric linen.

FLOUNCES.

The pleated flounce on lower skirts varies from eight to sixteen inches in depth. Those on paletots and upper skirts are only three inches wide or less. In pleating heavy goods for summer dresses modistes do not make a real pleat, but merely run a deep seam on the wrong side, as in melon pleating. This has the effect of a deep pleat, and is not so heavy. Five or six folds overlapping each other make a most stylish trimming for lower skirts of summer woolen fabrics. On pale light poplins and mohairs, brown alpaca braid or tiniest silk fringe is placed beneath each fold, and shows at the lower edge. A brown ruche heads the cluster of folds. Boussiers or dust colored mohair, with leaf brown trimmings, is a suit very popularly worn. There are summer serges at fifty cents a yard that make very pretty and inexpensive suits of this kind. It is difficult to say which are the most worn, brown or gray costumes. The hat matches the darker shades of trimming or sometimes contains both shades. The light shade is desirable for summer gloves.

A Great Patrimony Wasted.

Another great English house has fallen with a crash, through the misconduct of a degenerate son, and another lordly name has been added to the list of aristocratic bankrupts. Lord Courtenay, the eldest son of the Earl of Devon, and the representative of one of the most illustrious families in England, has brought ruin upon himself and his ancient house. His ancestors were of same stock as the Greek Emperors of the olden time. Allied also with the house of Capet, they were regarded as relatives by the old court of France, and up to 1789 important domestic events in the French royal family communicated to them officially. The estate had been greatly impaired by a predecessor, the Viscount Courtenay, who, among other extravagances, built a theatre on his grounds in Devonshire, two hundred miles from London, and hired the very best artists to travel from London to perform there. His prodigality threw the estate into great confusion and embarrassment, to relieve which the present Earl of Devon, on succeeding to the patrimony about twenty years ago, obtained office under the Government, and lived in the quietest and most economical manner, with the view of saving the old inheritance in England, at least, intact for his son. Part of an estate owned in Ireland was sold, and mortgages on the English property cleared off with the proceeds. The Earl's self-denying exertions, however, have been poorly rewarded. Unrestrained by the knowledge that only by great sacrifices on the part of his parents had the family fortunes been resurrected, Lord Courtenay plunged into the most reckless extravagance. Again and again has he been righted; every possible effort has been made, his return to Parliament was secured at great cost, in the hope that his mind might be turned from the excitement of the betting ring, to that of the political arena. Lord Devon, now advanced in years, sees all his fond hopes frustrated, all his self denial wasted; the seat which it cost so much to secure compulsorily resigned, and the only son for whom he has sacrificed and striven, a bankrupt.

A MYSTERIOUS SPECIES of animal is believed to exist in Nevada, and to feed on men, sheep and mules. A certain missing man named Lair, who was supposed to have perished by cold, is now believed to have been devoured by this animal. No one knows the species of animal, as none have been killed. Mr. Lair's clothes were found torn in strips and ribbons by the teeth and claws of some wild animal, and many of the bones were broken short off. A few days ago one of these animals chased a man, and made a sharp fight with three or four men before he could be driven off. It seemed to care but little for pistol shots, and pistols were all the men were armed with. They eat mule flesh, but will not touch horses and cattle, and seem to have a keener appetite for man than animal flesh. For want of a better title the whites in that district have given them the name of man-eaters. Some think these mysterious animals are a species of wolves, and others a species of wild cat.

The Late Mrs. Heber.

The death of Mrs. Heber, the widow of that venerated missionary bishop who may be termed one of the uncanonized saints of Protestantism, is announced in the English papers. Owing to advanced years, Mrs. Heber has for a time been lost to public notice. She was an estimable lady, and a worthy helpmeet to the Bishop in his arduous labors. It is to her that he addressed the graceful lines written while she was in England, and he in his missionary work in India, and beginning:

"If thou wert by my side, love,
How sweet would evening fall
In loone Bengala's distant land,
Listening to the nightingale.

"If thou wert by my side, love,
Our babies on my knee,
How gaily would our pinnace float
O'er Gunga's mimic sea."

THREE REQUISITES OF HEALTH.

If all the sickly people in the world were to take to their beds, and demand medical treatment, there would not be doctors enough to attend them, nor a sufficient number of the robust to nurse them. Three conditions are absolutely essential to health, viz.: a good appetite, easy digestion, and the ability to sleep soundly. Seven-eighths of the many thousands who suffer from indisposition, yet do not labor under serious disease, complain that they "can't eat," that their stomachs are "out of order," or that they "don't sleep well." For this class of ailments few persons think of calling in a physician. Nor is it necessary, inasmuch as a course of Hostetter's Bitters will certainly relieve the derangements of the stomach, the liver, and the nervous system, from which want of appetite, indigestion and sleeplessness arise. The excellent vegetable tonic and corrective is also a delightful anodyne. Insomnia or incapacity to sleep, which has resisted all the ordinary remedies, will yield readily to a dose of this pleasant sedative taken just before retiring to rest. In ordinary medical practice it is usual to give a stomachic, an aperient, an invigorant, a soporific, or an antiseptic, as the case for the time being may seem to require, [illegible] all these [illegible] are blended in due proportion. Thus, the digestion is stimulated, while the bowels are regulated, the liver toned, the strength recruited, the nerves calmed, the fluids purified and the circulation equalized. [illegible] restorative and regulating medicine in the world which acts so beneficially and agreeably upon all the assimilating and secretive organs at the same time; and to all who lack the three fundamental requisites of health and enjoyment, a vigorous appetite, sound digestion and refreshing sleep, it is confidently recommended as a specific.

DR. WHITTIER

CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL PRIVATE DISEASES, Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.

A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, Pruritis, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.

It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.

The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.

The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. [illegible] Hours 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. Sundays 12 M. to 2 P. M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE ST., (near Court House) Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
WEDNESDAY, June 1, 1870. }

There is no improvement to note in business and our markets continue dull and neglected, with but little prospect of any immediate improvement. As has been the case for some time, the demand for all of the leading commodities is confined almost wholly to supplying the immediate wants of the home trade; there is little or no margin deserving of the name, so that there is no inducement to make consignments to the east, and there is an entire absence of anything like speculation. In regard to values, there are no important changes.

APPLES—Season almost over and the market is nearly bare. We continue to quote at $5@7⅜ per bbl, for fair to choice.

BUTTER—Quiet and unchanged with a supply fully up to the demand. We quote at 15@20, for fair to strictly prime fresh.

BROOM CORN—Demand very slow; prices nominally unchanged, 12 to 16c.

BROOMS—Store prices: Fancy, $5,50; No. 1, $4,50; No. 2, $4; No. 3, $3,50; Common, $2,50@3.

BEANS—Dull but nominally unchanged, $1,50@1,75 per bushel.

CHEESE—The arrivals from Ohio have been unusually large within the past few days, and the market is fully supplied. Ohio Goshen quoted at 15@15½; Ohio Factory, 14@14½; New York Goshen, 17.

CARBON OIL—Is dull but firm, and cannot fairly be quoted below 24, in a jobbing way.

CORNMEAL—Demand light and prices unchanged, 95@$1 per bushel.

CEMENT—Sales of Louisville Hydraulic at $3@3⅛ per bbl.

DRIED FRUIT—There is a fair demand for the better grades, while common and inferior is dull and in good supply. We continue to quote Apples, at 5@6½ cts; Peaches at 6@7 cts for quarters, and 8@9 for halves.

EGGS—There is no falling off in the arrivals and the market is weak, with a drooping tendency; we now give 19 as the ruling quotation for fresh packed.

FEATHERS—Very quiet and the demand is always very light at this season of the year; live geese feathers still quoted at 80@85 to the trade.

FLOUR—Market firm with a steady local demand, and it is said that prices are lower here than in the west, and that it cannot be replaced at present prices. We continue to quote western flours, in store, at $5,25@5,75 for spring; $5,50@6 for winter and $7@7,50 for fancy brands. Rye Flour, $5.

GRAIN—The grain market is excessively dull; the eastern markets afford no margin, and the local demand is exceedingly light. Millers, or some of them at least, report that they will not pay over $1,15@1,18, for good to prime red wheat, which is a decline 3@4 cts per bushel, and the arrivals continue liberal. Oats dull though some dealers appear to be impressed with the belief that there is money in them at present prices to buy and hold; possibly there is, but it is not likely that prices will be so very much higher; we now quote at 47@50. Corn is also very dull—it seems almost impossible to move it at all, and many dealers are obliged to store; may be quoted nominally, at 80@82 for ear, and 85@87 for shelled. There seems to be little or no demand for rye and there are but few buyers above 85 cts, and not many even at that. Barley is seldom mentioned, as the season is virtually over.

HAY—Continues very dull, and prices are weak and drooping; sales from country wagons, at $10@16, and baled on wharf, at $12@15.

HEMP—Sales of undressed Kentucky Hemp at $167.

HUSKS—Corn husks, 3@3½ cts.

LARD OIL—Is drooping; we now quote at $1,23@1,28, for Extra No. 1, the outside figure for well known western brands.

LIME—Sales of Cleveland at $2,25 per bbl, and eastern at $1,75.

PROVISIONS—Market steady with a fair jobbing demand, and prices are unchanged. Plain Shoulders, 13½; Sugar Cured (canvassed,) 15½; Ribbed Sides, 16½; Short Rib, 17⅛; Clear Sides, 17½; Canvassed Sugar Cured Hams, 20⅛; Breakfast Bacon, 18, plain, and 19, Canvassed; Lard, 17@17½, in tierces; and 18@18½ in kegs and buckets. Mess Pork, $30½. Dried Beef, higher, 21½, Canvassed.

PEANUTS—Dull. Tennessee, 8@9 cts.

PEARL BARLEY—No. 4, 5½c per lb; No. 3, 5¾; No. 1, 6½. Oat Meal—A & B per bbl, of 200 lbs, $10; for half bbl, 100 lbs, $5,50.

POTATOES—Strictly prime Peach Blows are in demand, and sell readily at 38@40 cts, but common and inferior are not wanted at any price.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is in steady demand, at $2,20. No demand for Clover or Timothy Seeds.

PITTSBURGH WOOL MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
WEDNESDAY, June 1 1870. }

The receipts of the new clip are not large as yet, many farmers not being through with the washing and shearing of their sheep. The prospects are not very encouraging for high prices. Eastern markets continue dull with declining prices. It is the general impression that prices will rule several cents below the average of last year. In the coarse wool sections we hear of some of the local buyers purchasing at prices below that of last season, mostly in a small way and in exchange for goods from their stores, but so far as we can learn no eastern dealers or manufacturers have yet gone to the country or given any orders, and this indicates that the general trade in wool and woolens is more than usually depressed. We quote prices entirely nominal at 35 to 40c for coarse and fine wools. Tub washed wools, 37 to 40c.

Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, June 1.—In dry goods inactivity is the prevailing feature, while prices rate generally steady among the jobbing trade. The following are agents' prices for the annexed classes of goods: Clinton shirting flannels, 21c; Waverly do, 18c; Atlold do, 16c; Newport do, 13c; Chester Dock B blue and brown denims, 12½c; Lowlands do do, 12½c; Chester Dock A ticks, 16½c; do 8 do 12½c, and Harmony 3-4 and 7-8 wool linseys 22½@27½c.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }

It is said that three new wells have been struck within the past few days, one near Lawrenceburg, one at Reno, and the other at Shamberg, which according to latest advices, will swell the production at least three hundred barrels per day. It is remarkable the number of new wells that have been struck within the past two months, and the production, is estimated from 2,000 to 2,500 bbls per day greater than at the corresponding time last year. It is still more remarkable, that in the face of all this prices are still maintained, and that crude is stronger and higher relatively than refined. To-day, the market was dull as usual, the sales again being insignificant, and operators generally are very much dissatisfied with the present condition of affairs.

CRUDE.

Sale 160 bbls spot at 12⅝; 340 (Parkers oil) at 12; 3,000 bbls seller 10 days at $4,40, on lower creek. Seller June quoted at 12¼; seller July, 12¾; June, July or August to December, 12¾, that is for lines. Seller all year, 11¾@12, buyer, 13½@14.

REFINED.

Market quiet but a shade firmer. Sale 1,000 bbls spot at 27. June quoted at 27½; July, 27¾; August, 27¾; August to December, 28 to 28¼, buyer all year, 29¾.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily at this point with three feet six inches in the channel by the Monongahela marks last evening. Weather continues cloudy and unsettled, with occasional showers.

The Arlington departed for Cincinnati yesterday with about all the freight she could take on the water, and a fair number of passengers. It is probable that whenever the river becomes too low for her to come here she will go below the falls.

The Petrolia, from Wheeling, arrived and departed as usual.

The Belle, Capt. J. P. Smith, is the regular packet for Brownsville and Geneva this evening, leaving at 5 o'clock. She will be found at the wharf boat, above the Monongahela bridge, as will also her agent, Mr. S. R. Patterson.

The Wauanita, Capt. J. B. Conway, with Mr. Jas. Rees Jr. in the office, is announced to depart for St. Louis to-day.

The Juniata, Capt. C. L. Brennan, is the regular packet for Cincinnati to-day. She has excellent accommodations for passengers, and being of light draught, will go through without much difficulty.

—Our special telegram announced the arrival of the Nick Wall at Benton on the 26th. She left here on April 9th. Distance, 3,000 miles; time, 47 days. The Ida Reese No. 2, which left this port March 30th, arrived at Benton, according to another special, on the 26th, at 7 P. M. Time, 58 days. The Nick was the first arrival of the year, although the Deer Lodge, from Sioux City, was expected on the 22d inst. The following steamers are en route from this port to Benton: Viola Belle left April 12th, Sallie, April 23d; Ida Stockdale, May 1st. The Sioux City, Peninah and Far West also left this port for the Mountains in April, but they have been running between Sioux City and some of the Government stations above. The Emmile LaBarge left this port in Government service on April 13th, for the mouth of the Yellowstone. Verily our river Mountain trade this year has very small proportions, and there is plenty of water all the way to Benton.—St. Louis Dem. 30th.

—According to a Vicksburg paper, the freight on the Belle Lee's 1,100 tons of cargo amounts to $5,500 ... The same paper says: "A wager was made yesterday that the Natchez, upon leaving New Orleans on the evening of June 18th, at 5 o'clock, would reach Vicksburg at 9 o'clock on the following evening—twenty-eight hours' run. We would not be surprised if she got here in twenty-seven hours. When the river is at a proper stage for running purposes—say next fall—the great champion will reach Vicksburg from New Orleans within twenty-four hours. Captain Leathers says the feat can be accomplished by her, and he intends to make the effort.

—The St. Louis Republican of Tuesday says: The Great Republic is hard aground at Liberty bar. The river is beginning to give some trouble to heavy draught boats between here and Cairo by reason of changes in the channel. The Grand Tower was also reported aground, and that the Marble City was lightening her off. We since learn that she had little difficulty in getting free from the sands.

—Capt. Vanhook's steamer Carrie Kountz, lies high and dry at Island 95, and is some 150 feet from deep water. He was at Memphis on Friday trying to get dockmen to undertake the job of launching her. It is probable that he will employ sufficient force to dig her out.

—The channel at Buffalo Island is changed, and is now down Hacker's Bend, on the Illinois shore. The channel at Vance's is considerably further down the river than last season, and boats are now running by Willard's Landing.

—A Cairo dispatch says George Brown and Jack Williams, two negro roustabouts on the steamer Thompson Dean, got into an affray, in which Brown stabbed Williams, killing him instantly. Brown is in jail here.

—It was rumored in Memphis, Friday that the towboat Sam Brown, bound down, struck a snag near Randolph on Thursday night, and two of her barges were said to be in a sinking condition.

—The Memphis Appeal learns that five steamers now building will enter Messrs. Pegram & Scudder's St. Louis and New Orleans packet line. It is to be called the Merchants' Southern line.

—The Glasgow left New Orleans for Pittsburgh on the 25th, with 300 tons freight, and the Groesback for Cincinnati, with 1,000 bars railroad iron.

—The Ida, some time ago sunk in Lake Chicot, has been raised, and is now plying on that handsome sheet of water.

—The Bellevernon reshipped her New Orleans freight at Cincinnati, and will be up there to paint and repair.

—The Fontenelle from St. Louis arrived at Shreveport on Tuesday last, 7 days out.

—The Caroline is reported high and dry on a bar above Pecan Point, in Red River.

PLANING MILL MEN
And Others,
TAKE NOTICE!
The undersigned has letters patent of the United States for the improved construction of weather-boarding, inside lining and of wainscoting for houses. The weather-boarding, by this patent improvement, being more particularly intended for vertical use, and combines great durability and beauty of appearance; and it is so constructed as to entirely avoid the use of joint strips, and to prevent water from entering the joint of the gaping or the showing of the joints by the action of the weather on the timber.
Inside lining and wainscoting by this new method are so constructed as to form perfect panels as cheaply as by the ordinary flooring boards alone; thereby preventing the showing of the joints from any cause, and leaving no refuges for bugs.
He has also purchased the patent right of what is commonly known as the "Moulded Weather-boarding."
He has disposed of the following territorial and shop rights in Allegheny county, for both patents, to wit:
To G. A. Mundorff, the right of the territory south of the river in said county.
To McQuewan & Douglass, the right for the First ward, Pittsburgh.
To Hill, Patterson & Co., shop rights for their mill, Sixth ward, Pittsburgh.
To Alex. McClure, for the borough of McKeesport.
To Parker & Paul, for First, Second, Third and Fourth wards, city of Allegheny.
To Reed Brothers, shop right at their mill in Seventh ward, city of Allegheny.
To Dunham, Saint & Co., for the boroughs of Sharpsburg and Etna; also the townships of Shaler and Indiana.
All persons are warned against infringing upon either of said patents, and those wishing to purchase will please call, or address me, at No. 75 Smithfield street, Pittsburgh, Pa.
fe I. C. ANDERSON.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞CONSUMPTION.

DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP for the cure of Coughs, Colds and Consumption.

Dr. SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC for the cure of Dyspepsia and all the Debilitated Conditions of the Stomach.

DR. SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, for Diseases of the Liver or to act as a Gentle Purgative.

All of these three Medicines are often required in curing Consumption, though the Pulmonic Syrup alone has cured many desperate cases. The Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills assist in regulating the Stomach and Liver, and help the Pulmonic Syrup to digest and search through the blood vessels, by which means a cure is soon effected.

These Medicines are conscientiously offered to the Public as the only safe, certain and reliable remedy for Pulmonary Consumption, and for all those morbid conditions of the body which lead to that fatal disease. Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia are often forerunners of Consumption, and when they manifest themselves they require the most prompt attention.

The Pulmonic Syrup is a medicine which has had a long probation before the public. Its value has been proved by the thousand cures it has made through a period of more than thirty-five years, in all of which time its reputation has increased, and the most obstinate skepticism can no longer doubt that it is a remedy which may be used with confidence in all cases which admit of a cure.

If the patient will perseveringly follow the directions which accompany each bottle, he will certainly be cured, if his lungs are not too much wasted to make a cure possible. Even in cases supposed to be incurable, when friends and physicians have despaired, the use of this Medicine has saved the life of the patient and restored him to perfect health.

Dr. Schenck does not say that all cases of Pulmonary Consumption are within the reach of medicine, but he emphatically asserts that often when patients have the most alarming symptoms, such as a violent cough, creeping chills, night sweats, general debility, even to such a degree that they are obliged to lie in bed, and when they are given up by their physician, they may still be cured. No medical treatment can create new lungs, but when the lungs are very sadly diseased and to some extent destroyed, a cure may be effected by Dr. Schenck's medicines.

Also, in Scrofulous Diseases, these medicines are equally efficient. Dr. Schenck has photographs of a number of persons who have been nearly covered with running sores and now all healed up. This shows its purifying properties, which must be able to heal cavities in the lungs.

In the treatment of Consumption it is of the utmost importance to give vigor and a healthy tone to the system. Hence it is necessary to strengthen the appetite of the patient and improve the digestion. Proper nourishment is required together with such means as will make the food easily digestible. The articles most suitable for the diet of Consumptive patients are designated in Dr. Schenck's Almanacs, which are distributed gratuitously. In general, the most highly nutritious articles are to be preferred, but the digestive organs must be strengthened in order to make either food or medicine serviceable. This requirement is met by the Seaweed Tonic, and for this purpose it was designated.

When the digestive powers are put in good order, the food has its proper effect; the system of the patient is invigorated and the lungs begin to exercise their functions in a normal and healthy manner. Then the healing powers of Pulmonic Syrup will effect the cure.

Pulmonary Consumption is almost always complicated with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. Schenck's Mandrake Pills are intended to remove obstructions from the Liver and restore its healthy action. They have all the efficacy which is ascribed to calomel or "blue mass," and are warranted not to contain a particle of any mineral poison. These Pills cure the most obstinate costiveness, sick headache, piles, bilious affections, and all other diseases which arise from a torpid or obstructed condition of the Liver. One box of these pills will prove the efficacy of the medicine.

In Consumption the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are invaluable auxiliary medicines. They relieve the sufferings of the patient and assist the Pulmonic Syrup in effecting a cure. They have been found useful in advanced stages of Consumption, where the lungs are almost entirely destroyed and all symptoms according to the judgment of the physician indicated a speedy death. The lives of patients who were actually in a dying condition have been preserved for months by the use of Schenck's three great remedies.

Dr. Schenck's Almanac contains a full treatise on the various forms of disease, his mode of treatment and general directions how to use his medicine can be had gratis, or sent by mail by addressing his Principal Office, No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. de27:d&T

We heard yesterday of two policemen being found asleep on a door step by a newspaper editor on his way home, about 3 o'clock A. M. Look out boys, Mayor Brush decapitates for less crime than this.

The Crops.—We are reliably informed that the crops throughout this section of the State are promising remarkably well and that the harvests will probably take place at least a fortnight earlier than they did last year.

The New Organ.—The new organ for the First Presbyterian Church has arrived and is being put in place. It is a monster affair, being fully one-third larger than the organ in the Third Church. The contract price is $10,000.

Catherine Kountz says her relative, Henry Kountz, came to her house and acted in a very outrageous manner greatly to the annoyance of the family and neighborhood. Alderman Koenig has issued the usual papers in the case.

The children of the Minersville Presbyterian church are to have a fine treat on Wednesday night at 7½ o'clock in the hall over the car station at Minersville. The Magic Lantern exhibition of the Pilgrims Progress, which so delighted the children of Dr. Scovel's church will be repeated upon this occasion.

East Liberty.—Remember your enterprising news dealer, Mr. Anderson. He has always the latest monthly, weekly and illustrated papers. You have no need of coming to the city, as Mr. A. can furnish you just as well as our city dealers. He is agent for the GAZETTE, and will deliver it to you as cheap as is done in the city.

We have received, from the publishers, Messrs. J. B. Lippincott & Co., the Sunday Magazine, Good Words, and Good Works for the young. They are all remarkably good numbers containing articles from such pens as those of Geo. MacDonald, Jean Ingelow, Madame Guizot, Henry Kingsley, Dr. Blaikie, Dr. Guthrie and Dean Howson.

Discharged.—The female clerk, the circumstances of whose dishonesty were given in yesterday's GAZETTE, was subsequently discharged, her employer generously refusing to prosecute. He concluded the exposure to which she had been subjected was sufficient punishment, a decision which reflects honor upon his judgment and kindlier feelings.

Yesterday morning while Jacob Humphries, a colored man, was driving along Penn street, John Newman jumped into his wagon and began to annoy him. Humphries ordered him to get out, but previous to obeying the command Newman removed a bunch of hair from the other man's chin, with which he walked off in triumph. Alderman Allen has issued a warrant for Newman's arrest for assault and battery.

Wilkinsburg.—We want to again remind the citizens of this place, that Messrs. Crellman & Stevenson are still the agents of the Daily GAZETTE, where they can leave their names, for our morning paper. They have always on hand all the latest Monthlies and Weeklies. Anything you want in the news line you can get from these gentlemen at the same price as sold in the city.

Foot Crushed.—Yesterday afternoon Samuel Ward, a drayman, was engaged in loading a steam pump upon his dray in front of Faber & Van Gorder's, 367 Liberty street, when the piece of machinery fell upon his right foot and crushed it. He was taken to his home in Lawrenceville, where one of the toes was subsequently amputated. He is fifty-five years of age and fears are entertained that the accident will result seriously.

Notice.—The 9th anniversary of the the Pittsburgh and Allegheny "Home for the Friendless" will be held this (Thursday) evening, at 7 o'clock, in the Union Baptist Church on Grant street, near Sixth avenue Pittsburgh. By order of the Board,

June, 1 1870. MRS. S. A. TREVOR, Sec.

In Town.—We are informed that the town is overrun with professional thieves. Chief Hague infomrs us that unless they leave at once every man of them will be arrested and sent up under the ninety day law. They could hardly accommodate all of them at the Work House, and it would be a pity to keep the poor fellows in jail during this hot weather, so they had better leave town, for Hague is in earnest.

Named at Last.—The new Catholic chapel in Mansfield, Pa., has been named, and will be dedicated some time in July. The name chosen by the pastor, Rev. Scanlon, for the new edifice is "St. Fennian," a very pretty name, and we may add that the saint upon whom the honor of the name is conferred is in nowise connected with the Fenians of the present day, that individual being in his day a nobleman and disciple of St. Patrick.

Monthly Report.—During the month of May Deputy Mayor Nichols disposed of one hundred and three cases, sixteen of these he sent to jail, and two to the workhouse. Forty-eight paid fines and ten were discharged. The amount paid into the City Treasury was $213 60.

His police district embraces an area of six square miles, and is supplied with but eight policemen. There should be an increase there.

Went Through It.—Yesterday morning before daybreak some thief entered Emmel's Hotel, northwest side of the Diamond, Allegheny, and ransacked the pockets of the boarders. Nearly every one suffered in amounts ranging from five to ten dollars. There were no windows nor doors open, and there is a supposition that the thief was in the inside all the time, and pretty well acquainted at that. The police are investigating.

Venice and Rome and Naples, Milan and Padua, are renowned among the cities of the old world, but in one respect Pittsburgh and Allegheny are rivaling them all, and that is in the number of professional street beggars. Can nothing be done in cities like these to shield peaceable, quiet citizens from having ghastly stumps of amputated arms or wasted legs, or glaring, empty eye-sockets and distorted features, thrust before their eyes at every corner? There are soldiers' homes, and pensions and work houses and alms-houses enough for all of these, if the people who ought to see to putting them there would only do it.

Singular and Fortunate.

Mr. A. G. Buchanan, a painter, met with a singular accident yesterday. He was engaged in painting Mr. S. L. Lutton's residence, 681 Penn street, and for this purpose had elevated himself on a ladder above the window cornice of the second story. Suddenly the round upon which he stood gave way and his weight carried him half way down the ladder, breaking the rounds as he went. At last one was reached which did not yield and he was suddenly halted and by the force was thrown headforemost through the parlor window on the first floor. Singular as it may seem he escaped injury, and beyond a bad fright was free from a scratch. In about fifteen minutes he was at work again as though nothing had happened.

A Newsboys' Message.

The enthusiastic turnout of the newsboys in the procession on Decoration Day, made a decided and good impression on all who witnessed the demonstration. Last evening the three young officers named below, marched into our office and handed us the following, with an urgent request to "publish it sure." We cheerfully comply with the request:

We want to give our thanks to John W. Pittock for giving us newsboys the banner and flag to turn out on Decoration Day, and for feeding us so nice after we got back from the procession.

UNITED PRESBYTERIAN.

The General Assembly—Continuance of the Proceedings—The China Mission Question Again—Delegates Sent to Other Churches—The Financial Situation—Church Union Endorsed—The Sunday School Cause—Lively Debate.

SEVENTH DAY—MORNING SESSION.

The Assembly met yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, and spent half an hour in devotional exercises, Dr. Grier in the chair.

Rev. Dr. Black, of Monmouth, Illinois, opened the business session with prayer.

On motion it was resolved to limit the speeches to three minutes.

A motion was made to reconsider the resolution limiting the speeches to three minutes. The motion to reconsider was lost.

Rev. R. H. Pollock was added to the Committee on Narrative and State of Religion.

A motion to appoint a member from New York to "time" the speakers was not acted upon.

JEWISH MISSION.

The Select Committee on the Jewish Mission, and the appeal of Mrs. Young, of Bloomington, Illinois, to make an annual contribution of $100 per annum to the Mission to the Jews, reported that Mr. Tris was earnest, diligent and devoted to his work, and that as many of the people are disposed to do something for the Jews, although the Assembly has no Jewish Mission, they recommend the following:

That Mr. Tris be recognized as a Missionary to the Jews in the city of New York; that Rev. Jas. Thompson, Isaac M. Gay, Jas. Brown and J. S. Dale be a Committee to consult with and encourage the missionary; that Isaac M. Gay, Esq., be appointed Treasurer, and the contribution of Mrs. Stewart be appropriated to the same mission.

CHINA MISSION.

Proceeded to the order of the day, the consideration of the Mission to China.

Dr. Brown thought they were not prepared to vote finally on the Chinese Mission. They had neither the men nor the money, and the consideration of the subject should be postponed to the next meeting or the General Assembly.

Mr. N. Ballentine said they had put their hand to the plow, and should not look back.

Rev. Wm. Bruce asked for information how much money had been raised for foreign missions last year.

Rev. D. Paul answered, about $54,000. Sixty-three thousand five hundred is asked for this year.

Mr. Bruce was of the opinion that it would be more difficult to raise money this year than it was last year.

Rev. R. H. Pollock was opposed to continuing the China Mission, because there was no reasonable prospect of raising the funds to keep it in operation.

Mr. James Hay, Newark, N. J., moved that the whole subject be referred to the next General Assembly.

Dr. Easton did not see why money could not be raised for the China as well as other missions.

Rev. Alexander said postponement would kill the whole matter, and he would oppose it.

Mr. Getty could send back Mr. Nevin to China with all his heart. But he would not say to him to go back as there was no prospect that the church would sustain it.

Dr. Easton said he had a note from a gentleman, who was willing to do what he promised, that he was willing to give a thousand dollars to the Chinese Mission, rather than that it should fail.

Rev. Mr. Andrews was convinced they could not go back on the Chinese Mission without incurring guilt. He opposed postponement. Laymen and others had said they were willing to sustain the mission.

Rev. Mr. Cummings said the resolution before the house was opposed to the spirit of the Gospel. They should not wait for the restoration of Mr. Nevin's health. They should send a missionary at once.

Rev. Mr. McCullough was willing to cast aside all doubt, but he wished those who had talked about faith to remember that faith without work is dead.

Mr. James Hay said that the ministers were remiss in their duty in not educating the people to sustain all the Missions of the Church. He asked leave to withdraw his motion. Leave granted.

The question then recurred upon the resolution to sustain the Mission, offered by Rev. David Paul.

The resolution was discussed both for and against at considerable length, in which there were some personal reflections relative to the manner in which the mission has been conducted.

Rev. J. C. Nevin, Missionary to China, responded to the remarks. He said that nothing but the Psalms of David had ever been sung in the Mission of the U. P. Church in China and they had been sung exclusively in his own family. He thought the China Mission had been neglected for the smaller and less important Mission in Egypt. The Mission in Canton alone would reach more heathen than could be found in the entire Egyptian Mission. As to the matters of difference about which the different denominations were wrangling, he said it would be at least one generation before the Chinese could be made to understand them. The missionaries had work enough to do to instruct them in the fundamental truths.

Rev. Mr. McHenry thought the question had been fully discussed, and was prepared to vote.

Cries of "Question," "Question," but the discussion was continued.

Rev. Mr. Harper arose to a privileged question, involving the fidelity of Mr. Nevin.

Rev. Mr. Pollock called the gentleman to order. He held that Mr. Nevin was not under discussion.

The Moderator ruled the point of order well taken.

The question was then called for, and a rising vote requested, which resulted in the adoption of the resolution by a vote of 148 yeas to 3 nays.

The resolution as amended was adopted.

Mr. Paul stated that the work was only half done, and he hoped the Assembly would go on bravely and complete it.

On motion the report was recommitted for further amendment.

Rev. Mr. Brown moved that the subject of Organic Union be made the order of the day for half-past two o'clock. The motion was adopted.

PAPAL BAPTISM.

By consent the house proceeded to the consideration of unfinished business, and the report on the validity of Papal Baptism was taken up.

Rev. A. G. Wallace stated the question. The amendments before the Assembly was a resolution adopting the conclusion of the report without adopting the arguments.

A motion was made to reconsider the vote by which the motion to defer the question to the next Assembly, was defeated.

A substitute was offered to refer the report back to the Committee to be overturned.

Mr. Bruce, as an amendment, moved that the report be sent down to the Presbyteries to obtain an expression of the views of the Church on the subject.

Pending the discussion of the question, the hour of adjournment arrived, and after some announcements had been made, the Assembly adjourned, Rev. Mr. Galbraith leading in prayer.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

At two o'clock the Assembly was called to order by Moderator Kendall, and opened with prayer by the Rev. Dr. Edmonds.

APPOINTMENTS OF DELEGATES.

Rev. John H. Niblock presented the report of the Committee on Correspondence. The paper set forth that the delegates from other Churches had all reported with the exception of the delegates from Scotland and Ireland. They reported being fraternally receivsd wherever they went. Delegates from all the Churches in return were sent to the General Assembly with the exception of the Reformed Presbyterian Church Old School.

The Committee recommended the appointment of the following delegates:

Rev. Joseph Clokey, D.D., to the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, to meet in Dayton, Ohio, Rev. John A. Bailey alternate.

Rev. Wm. Bruce to the Synod of the Reformed Church, to meet this week in Newark, N. J., Rev. J. S. McCullough, alternate.

To the same church, 1871. Rev. W. C. Jackson, Rev. Robert Armstrong alternate.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States, Rev. J. W. Dick, D.D., Rev. D. M. B. McLean alternate.

To the Canada Presbyterian Church Rev. D. H. A. McLean, D.D., Rev. Robert Gracey, D.D., alternate.

To the General Synod of the Reformed Church, Rev. R. G. Wallace, Rev. J. R. Doig, D. D., Alternate.

To the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, (O. S.,) Rev. D. W. Carson, Rev. Wm. M. Coleman, Alternate.

To the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland, to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland and to the Synod of the U. P. Church of Scotland, Rev. James Harper, D. D., Rev. T. H. Hanna, Jas. McCandless and David Douglass, Esqs.

The report was adopted.

THE FINANCES.

Elder Wm. Getty, Chairman of the Committee on Finances, presented a report of which the following is a full abstract:

CONDITION OF THE FUNDS.

Foreign Missions	$ 51,866 59	$ 53,141 23	$ 725 91
Home "	25,805 56	25,563 20	2,444 04

Chicago	487 97		487 97
Totals	$128,853 48	$129,667 63	$13,546 18

The agent of San Francisco fund has overpaid the sum of $45.12.

The report then discusses the question of increased liberality, and says that the salaries of pastors should always be enough to enable them to live comfortably and lay up something for old age or sickness. In cities and large towns $2,000 should be the minimum, in country districts $1,200 to 1,500. Many of the churches could do much better than that. One great benefit would be the increase in the contributions which would inevitably follow the payment of a comfortable salary to the pastor.

The report further states that increased liberality can be secured; 1st. By the individual members making the matter a religious duty; 2d. By the pastor urging a faithful performance of the same; 3d. By the Presbyteries taking special care to see that no congregation shall neglect this duty; 4th. By having stated times for giving.

THE RESULTS

Will be, first, comfort to the conscience of each member of the Church; second, comfort to the pastor of the congregation; third, contentment to remain among a liberal people; fourth, attachment to the U. P. church; fifth, an abundance of means to support all the enterprises of the church; sixth, the glory of God in the advancement of the Redeemer's kingdom.

GENERAL RESULT.

Total amount of all contributors during the year	$819,364
Amount for previous year	783,682
Increase	$35,682

The following statement shows the average salary paid to pastors, arranged according to Synods:

1st Synod of New York	$990
" " " the West	904
" " " Pittsburgh	886
" " " Ohio	805
2nd Synod of the West	728
" " " Illinois	743
" " " Iowa	678
" " " Kansas	560
Presbytery of Oregon	368

Average salary, $740.

The receipts were $9,734 87 less than the previous year. The actual amount contributed, after deducting nearly $20,000 from sales of the Publication Board, is $110,000, which does not average more than $1 70 to each member of the church.

During the year $3,480 10 was paid to Foreign Missions from bequests during the year; to the Board of Home Missions, $1,478 15; to Church Extension, $316; total, $5,508 05.

The report was accompanied by several resolutions, among which was one recommending the election of Rev. John G. Brown and Messrs. Wm. Bell and J. C. Porter as Trustees of the General Assembly for the term commencing July, 1870.

The report was received and the resolutions adopted.

POSTPONED.

Rev. Mr. Jackson moved that the consideration of the report of the Committee on Board of Home Missions be postponed and made the order of the day for ten o'clock Thursday morning. Carried.

The report of the Committee on Revision was then presented, which contained the following resolution:

Resolved, 1st. That the minutes of the Synods of the West, of Pittsburgh, Iowa and Illinois be and are hereby approved. 2d. That the Synods of New York and Ohio and the 2d Synod of the West are hereby required to forward them to the next General Assembly for revision.

The report was adopted.

BILLS AND OVERTURES.

Rev. Dr. James Brown presented the report of the Committee on Overtures, which deprecated the unnecessary number of overtures with which the different Presbyteries were troubled and recommended the passage of a resolution providing that no overture be sent down to Presbyteries without a two-thirds affirmative vote of the General Assembly.

The report was approved and resolution adopted.

CHURCH UNION.

The hour having arrived, the order of the day was taken up—the report of the joint committee on Union with the Reformed Presbyterian Church under the title of "The United Presbyterian Church."

The report [heretofore published in full in the GAZETTE] was read by the Clerk.

Mr. James Brown moved its adoption.

Brief speeches, indicating cordial and earnest desire on the part of, the U. P. Assembly for union with the Reformed Church were made by Revs. Blair, Cooher, Alexander and Easton, after which that part was adopted unanimously.

The report in relation to a union with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, [the Old and New School,] was next read and unanimously approved.

Both papers were ordered to be printed in the minutes.

Rev. James Brown then moved that a committee be appointed to nominate a Committee of Conference to confer with a similar committee from the Reunited Presbyterian Church, on the subject of Union.

Rev. Mr. Blair said the Assembly had no official notification that the other Church had appointed such a committee.

Mr. Hays said he thought it was time enough to appoint a Committee when they were assured that the Reunited church had appointed a similar representation. He moved a postponement of the matter until the next meeting of the General Assembly.

Rev. Dr. Dales then made a verbal report of his conference with the Committee of the Reunited Church in Philadelphia, and read the following letter:

PHILADELPHIA, May 27, 1870.

Rev. J. B. Dales, D. D.:

In accordance with your request, I presented your letter of Christian salutation in behalf of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church this afternoon.

It affords me pleasure to inform you that it was most cordially received.

Immediately after the reading of your letter Rev. Dr. Shaw, chairman of the Committee on Correspondence, presented a paper reciprocating the fraternal salutations of your letter, regretting the failure of committees previously appointed in Conference, expressing a desire for organic union, and appointing a committee of five to meet a similar committee from the U. P. Assembly to confer on the subject of organic union and report to the next General Assembly.

This paper will be officially transmitted to the U. P. Assembly, by a Committee appointed, to represent the Presbyterian Assembly, before your Assembly, and which leaves Philadelphia to-night for that purpose.

The paper referred to was adopted by the Assembly unanimously, and I know that there is an earnest desire for Union with the U. P. Church. May the Great Head of the Church preside over the hearts of all concerned, and in His own good time and way unite these two beloved branches of the Christian Church for His glory and for the best interests of the Church and world.

This communication is sent by direction of the General Assembly.

With great regards,
Your friend and brother,
R. D. HARPER.

At the conclusion of the reading of the letter the motion to postpone was withdrawn and the motion to appoint a committee, carried with but one negative vote.

The Moderator appointed as the committee, Revs. A. Y. Houston, J. L. Whitlay, D. M. McClelland, and elders R. J. McGowan and Wm. Getty.

THE CHINA MISSION.

The report of the Committee on Foreign Missions in relation to the China Mission was next taken up. The point at issue here is whether a co-laborer shall be sent out to continue the work in the absence of Rev. Mr. Nevin who has returned home on account of ill health.

After a lengthy debate and innumerable motions and counter-motions the matter was laid on the table.

The remaining resolutions were passed.

Elder McGay offered an additional resolution, that all friends of the cause be requested to raise funds for foreign missions, either for general or special objects. When raised for special objects the money to be so applied directly by the Board.

The resolution was passed, but afterwards reconsidered, when, after some discussion, on motion of Rev. Mr. Pollock the whole matter was referred back to the Committee with instructions to report a resolution this morning covering the whole ground.

The Assembly then adjourned with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Pollock.

EVENING SESSION

Assembled at seven and a half o'clock. Opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Purdy.

On motion the roll call and reading of the minutes were dispensed with.

The assistant clerk, Rev. Mr. Wallace, then called over the list of Presbyteries, for the purpose of ascertaining the names of the persons appointed Financial Agents and Superintendents of missions for their respective bodies.

The list when made made out was then approved.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL CAUSE.

The Rev. Mr. Johnson then read the report of the Committee on Sunday School Cause, which was made the order of business for the session.

A motion was made to adopt the paper.

On motion of Rev. Mr. Wallace, the Rev. Dr. Edmonds was invited to address the Assembly upon the work in his own country and England.

The Rev. Dr. Edmonds, in response to the invitation, took the stand and after a felicitous introduction upon being called upon so suddenly, remarked that he had seen a little since he had come into America—a precision and method in the arrangements of the Sunday School work which he could make use of when he went home.

In his own country the schools were divided into Mission and Congregational. They found it necessary to establish this distinction there that all might be embraced in the work. They had Sunday School organizations which aided in a great measure, in the work. Especially was this the case with the Sunday School Union, which held its headquarters in London.

Whether for good or evil, the Sabbath-school system had been established finally. Yet the Christian Church should be careful that it did not overstep its proper boundaries, and encroach upon the parental authority of the Church. For after all it could only be successful as it was kept under the fostering care and control of the Church.

IN OTHER COUNTRIES.

The speaker then devoted a few moments to answering questions put to him by the members of the Assembly in relation to the work in his land.

He said the uniform lesson system was generally adopted, but there were a few outside schools which had indenendent lessons.

The Sabbath School was connected with the session and was subject to the control of the elders of the church; in England there were morning and afternoon sessions. In Scotland evening schools; in appointing teachers to a large extent they were taken from the classes, and the teachers were generally members of the church, although there was no rigid rule.

There was no especial connection of the pastor with the schools further than the sympathies of the minister extended: the only difference in the mission and congregational schools was probably that the lessons in the latter would be a little higher, based on the supposition that the members of the congregational were better versed in the Scriptures; the employment of the blackboard and such appliances, were, compared with this country, rare; the catechism was invariably used in the congregational schools in Scotland; not so in England. Sabbath school papers and library books, the latter especially, were largely made use of.

The report was taken up again and considered seriatim. The first resolution, commended the work to the members and officers of the church as one of great value and interest, and eminently worthy of encouragement and support.

Rev. Mr. Owens suggested that all the Sabbath school workers in the house, whether members of the Assembly or not, be invited to take part in the discussion.

The suggestion encountered some opposition, and was withdrawn.

The first resolution was then adopted.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LITERATURE.

The second resolution, recommended great care in reference to the selection of library books.

Rev. J. H. Brown thought this a very important matter, It was beginning to be a serious question whether these library books were not a curse instead of a blessing. A great many schools already had thrown them out altogether and substituted Sunday school papers. Nothing could be told by the label of a book.

Rev. Mr. Alexander thought the question was what kind of books as to character shall be admitted into the libraries.

Elder Hays had very little faith in the Library books. When he was a "laddie" in Scotland, he had his Catechism, larger and smaller, and a portion of a Psalm and a few verses of the Bible to learn each Sunday, and that was considered by the fathers in the "land o' cakes" as enough for the children, and he had adopted the same opinion. He thought a great many of the books were only "trash." There was no use of half the books. The minds of the children were poisoned by reading them—it turned them away from reading the Book of books. If he had the Bible and his Catechism and the Pilgrim's Progress, he would be satisfied. [Laughter.]

Rev. Dr. Scott favored the throwing out of both books and papers. He thought the people had gone too far and should be brought back to the Psalms. He never found any difficulty in getting the children to learn the Psalms. A dozen of them well committed and impressed upon the mind were worth all the Sabbath School literature in the world.

Rev. Dr. Brown said the good old system of instruction at home was by no means used as it should be. The Sabbath School instructions of, to-day were purely sensational—very little solid truth. These Sabbath Schools conventions were of that character. The Sabbath School library was but training the children to be novel readers. The scholars always selected the one touching who never was naughty and died young. They never took home a good, sound work of instruction.

He believed the great majority of the Sabbath School literature of the day was a curse instead of a blessing. It did not augur any good to the church that the parents were departing from the old method of family instruction and allowing that of the Sunday School to take its place.

Rev. Mr. Armstrong thought it would be much better to have no library unless greater care was exercised in the selection of the books.

Rev. Mr. Ramsey favored the passing of a resolution instructing all the churches to throw out the libraries and go back to the old system of Bible and Psalm books and catechism.

Rev. Mr. Cummins thought there was religion and talent in the U. P. Church to select a library pure and fit for the children to read. Taking the views of some of the speakers a preacher would not be able to preach—all he could do would be to read the Bible simply. If sermons were useful as explanatory of the texts preached from, so the library books could be selected to answer the same end.

The second resolution was then passed.

The third resolution, enjoining upon teachers and friends of the cause the importance of monthly meetings of concert and prayer, was passed without debate.

The fourth resolution recommended the adoption of all of teaching, blackboard exercises, uniform lessons, &c.

THE IMPROVED METHODS

Rev. Mr. Ormond didn't think object lessons and blackboard illustrations the best way to teach the children of eternal life. They might do in the day school, but were out of place on the Sabbath.

Rev. Mr. Whitlay had been in a Sunday school where they had established a postoffice as one of the "improved methods." He was'nt in favor of that.

Mr. Blair knew no patent way. He thought the main essentials were prayer in the closet, family worship and greater zeal.

Rev. Mr. Armstrong had seen the blackboard method tried and thought it simply ridiculous. Many had grave doubts of these "improved methods," and he did not think the Assembly should sanction them.

Rev. Mr. Jackson said the hopes of the Church all clustered around the Sabbath School. He was, then, surprised, in the face of the testimony which was in favor of the improved methods, that there should be any opposition to them. No member of the Assembly would send his children to the day school which had made no advancement since the Common School system had begun. So then he thought this rule should apply to the Sunday School.

By this time, half-past nine, the members of the Assembly began to be restless, and a motion to adjourn was made, which was carried. Rev. Mr. Whitlay closed with prayer.

Children's Meeting.

Tuesday evening the children of the United Presbyterian Sabbath Schools of this city assembled in the Sixth avenue U. P. Church to hear an address from the celebrated Dr. Edmonds, of London, known as the "Children's Preacher." Although short notice was given to the schools, when the hour arrived the spacious edifice was well filled with the children and their parents. The meeting was opened with prayer and singing a part of the 136th Psalm.

The Reverend gentleman took as his text a part of the ninth verse of the third chapter of Zephaniah—"a pure language." He stated to the children that owing to an affection of the voice, they must be very attentive in order to hear what he had to say. He began by comparing in a beautiful and simple manner the lips to a door. It is more important what goes out of the mouth than into it. As bees fly out of their hive, so winged words go forth and we cannot catch them and bring them back. When a boy he used to hunt the rainbow to get the golden vessel at its end, but he never could find it. So evil words once spoken can never be recalled. In order to have "a pure language" you must hire five porters to keep your lips. You can stow them away in a little room, and they will ask little pay. Their names are: 1st, Truth; 2d, Godly Fear; 3d, Love; 4th, Prayer; 5th, Hope. On leaving England he knew that they spoke the English language in America. Had he been going to China he would have endeavored to learn some Chinese words. So while on earth we should try to learn the language of Heaven. Some boys speak words that go forth like stinging wasps. Let your words be like sunbeams, sweet and warm and beautiful. And by and by we'll go home to Heaven, where there are no bad thoughts or evil words.

The sermon throughout was a rare gem, and peculiarly adapted to the feelings and capacities of the children. The audience was held during the whole exercise in wrapt attention. The meeting was then dismissed with prayer and benediction by Dr. Edmonds.

Up in the Air.

Yesterday afternoon a thrilling scene was witnessed on Ninth street. The spire of the new St. Andrew's Episcopal Church having been completed it was necessary to have the lightning rod placed in position. The great altitude, near two hundred feet, however, deterred the regular workmen from undertaking this feat in the air. At last, after several had failed, it was undertaken by Mr. James E. Lockhart, brother of the Messrs. Lockhart, who had the contract in hand.

A small platform, not unlike that of the main truck of' a mast had been constructed at the pinnacle of the tower, to be used as the workman's platform. Commencing the ascent, by means of a rope adjusted in the usual way, Mr. Lockhart cleared the first hundred feet easily, but yet the platform was indistinctly visible far above in the air. By this time a great crowd had assembled below who watched the movements of the daring fearless climber with the most intense interest. His progress now became somewhat slower, but steadily, he advanced up, up, up, until the observer's vision became dizzy and his sight temporarily failed. The silence below was really painful as the form of the man grew gradually dimmer and less distinct until it blended with that of the tapering point of the spire glistening almost out of sight in the air. The crowd below remained motionless, electrified into silence as the seemingly animated speck of matter above them moved about in an aerial foundation, apparently as free and confident as though a denizen of the upper atmosphere.

It was some time before the work was completed and the workman commenced to ascend. As he came gradually into now distinct view and finally reached terra firma, a sigh of intense relief with common unanimity was heard through the company, who had been the observers of the thrilling entertainment. The performer seemed to take it all as a matter of course and disappeared afterward with nerves as calm and placid as though he had only been taking a summer day's walk on solid ground.

The Humboldt Monument.

On Decoration Day every body must have been pleased to observe, when passing through the Allegheny commons, that the Humboldt monument has made such progress. The foundations were securely laid last autumn, and now the lower portion of the beautiful pedestal has been built. It is intended, if possible, to unveil the completed monument on the Fourth of July. Mr. Morganroth thinks the stone-work and sculpture will be ready, and Professor Blaeser has promised that the bronze bust shall leave Berlin in full time. The Humboldt Finance Committee finds, however, that it has not quite enough money to complete the monument since the plans have been changed, with a consequent increase of cost, and not wishing to appeal again to the public for subscriptions, has decided to give three grand exhibitions of Tableaux Vivants on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, June 14, 16 and 18, at the Academy of Music. The German Turners will appear each of these evenings in a series of their beautiful representations of Dore's Illustrations of the Bible, and some of the best known amateur talent of the city will join in a concert on each evening. We believe there has never been in our city an exhibition of such varied, and at the same time excellent and unexceptionable attractions, and we have no doubt but the house will be really crowded every evening, and that more than enough money will be raised to complete the Humboldt Monument Fund.

Convention of the North American Turners' Union—Yesterday's Sessions.

The first session commenced at 9 o'clock A. M., Mr. F. Lackner, of Chicago, President in the chair.

Resolutions passed contain the following:

That the Union is opposed to aiding religious bodies by central or State legislation.

That the Union is especially opposed to a division of the school funds and exempting church property from taxation, and to the use of denominational books in the public schools.

That the Union is in favor of introducing obligatory attendance of public schools.

New York was re-elected to be the vorort seat of administration of the Union for the next two years.

The next convention of the Union, in 1872, will be held at Louisville.

The next Turnerfest of the Union is to come off in 1871, at Williamsburg, N. Y.

A motion to declare in favor of Woman's Suffrage was laid on the table.

The second session opened at three o'clock, P. M., with Mr. F. Lackner, of Chicago, in the chair.

After the transaction of some routine business, the Convention adjourned sine die.

Burglary.

About half-past four o'clock yesterday morning the jewelry store of Messrs. Scharnke and Wells, corner of Sixth avenue and Smithfield street, opposite the GAZETTE office building, was entered by burglars, and about $150 worth of jewelry stolen. The burglars effected an entrance to the store by passing through a hall leading from Smithfield street, from which a door opens into the store. This door was forced open with a crobar. The valuable goods, as is customary, had all been placed in the safe, and the articles stolen were plated chains. An attempt was made to blow the safe open, a number of holes having been drilled in it, but the attempt failed. A clock that had been left standing on top of the safe on the evening prior to the robbery had been knocked over during their operations and the hands upon it indicated the time above stated. There is no clue to the thieves, but it is quite evident they are professionals and are provided with the necessary tools for prosecuting their nefarious work.

Artist in Trouble.

An Italian gentleman of the mellifluous name of Stephen Mansan called upon Alderman Bowden yesterday and related a tale of grief. For two successive days he has been attracting the attention of the people and enticing them into a side show accompanying the circus in the Diamond. The medium by which he exerted his influence was one of those exquisite instruments—a hand organ. As the show was expected to leave soon he asked yesterday for the amount due him, $28. His employers were indignant and refused his demand, hence the grief.

The Alderman brought them over to his sanctum, where an arrangement was effected, the money paid and the suit withdrawn. Then returning, Messrs. Raymond & Co., proprietors of the show, seized upon the organ, valued at $250. The artist was again plunged into woe, but the magistrate once more came to his relief, and put him again in possession of his property. He is now happy.

Fire Marshal's Report.

Through the kindness of Joseph A. Butler, Esq., Fire Marshal, we have been furnished the following facts relative to fires during the months of April and May' 1870:

There were during the time specified 47 fires (not including burning chimneys.) The property destroyed amounted in the aggregate to $65,304.30. Upon which there was insurance to the amount of $16,579.30. Value of property destroyed upon which there was no insurance, $46,425.00.

The most disastrous fire within the time stated occurred on the 25th of April, by which Graham, Lyon & Co.'s plaining mill was destroyed, involving a loss of $20,000, upon which there was an insurance of $5,000 only. There has been two false alurms in the city during the past two manths. Over thirty persons have been notified to make changes in their premises to prevent fires.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—The patrons of the Opera House should remember that Mr. Conklin, the Treasurer, takes a benefit Saturday afternoon, and that Harry Hotto, who has volunteered his services for the occasion, will be tendered a benefit Saturday night.

THE NEW TRINITY.

Laying of the Corner Stone of the New Trinity Episcopal Church, To-day.

The ceremony of laying the corner-stone of the new Trinity Church will take place at five o'clock this evening, in conformity with the ritual prescribed by the Church. The Right Rev. J. B. Kerfoot, Bishop of Pittsburgh, will officiate, assisted by the clergy of the neighborhood, in surplices. They will proceed from the Chapel to the site of the corner in procession, singing antiphonally the appointed psalms, in which the laity are expected to join. The whole service will be solemn, impressive and appropriate. The corner-stone is a many-tinted sandstone, from the Massilon quarries, in Ohio. One side and one end of the stone will be exposed. Panels have been chiseled; the larger one on the side is inscribed A. D. 1870; the end panel is embellished by a ornate cross in alto relief. Underlying the principal corner stone, will be a large stone with a cavity, in which sundry mementoes will be deposited including copies of the Holy Bible, the Book of Common Prayer, the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of Pittsburgh, the Journal of the last Diocesan Convention, extracts from the Minutes of the proceedings of the Vestry of the Parish in relation to the new church edifice, samples of the coinage and paper currency of the United States, copies of the various newspapers and periodicals published in this city, and in addition, the brass plate which had been deposited in 1824 in the corner stone of the old church with the following inscription:

The corner stone of Trinity church was laid on the first day of May, A. D. 1824, A. L. 5824, by Magnus M. Murray, Esq., R. W. D. D. Grand Master of Masons for the Western District of Pennsylvania, assisted by his brethren of the city of Pittsburgh and its vicinity.

Plate made by Jno. Gallagher; engraved by Savory.

On the obverse side of this old plate the following new inscription has been added:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. This corner stone of the Third Edifice, built by Trinity Church, was laid by Rt. Rev. J. B. Kerfoot, D.D., first Bishop of Pittsburgh, on the 2d day of June, A. D. 1870, assisted by the clergy and laity of the city and vicinity.

Building Committee—John H. Shoenberger, Calvin Adams, James M. Cooper.

Contractors—Bulman & Glaister.

Organist—L. C. Haughwaut.

Sexton—And. Munholland.

Engraved by W. G. Dunseath.

The work on this church is prosecuted with great vigor; its outlines are beginning to attract general notice and admiration; its lines present a cluster of alternate protrusions and recessions, which, although so conspicuous at the base, will gradually subside as the edifice rises. The whole design is severely gothic. The church when finished, with the chapel en groupe, will rank among the finest of our public buildings, and will be a credit to the city and an honor to the Christian liberality of the people of Trinity Parish.

KILLED ON THE TRACK.

Another Railroad Fatality—Knocked Down and Run Over by a Train.

Yesterday afternoon a fatal accident occurred on the Pennsylvania Railroad at Bloomfield, Sixteenth ward. Henry Bean, a middle-aged man, was walking along the track going from the city, when he observed a train approaching in front. To avoid it he stepped to the other track at the side. Just at this instant another train came along in his rear and before he was aware of its nearness, he was knocked down, run over and killed. The noise of one train prevented him from hearing the other. The body was terribly mangled. It was picked up and brought to the late residence of the deceased in Reisville last evening. The victim leaves a wife and family. Coroner Clawson will hold an inquest.

THE COURTS.

U. S. Circuit Court—Judge McCandless.

WEDNESDAY, June 1.—The case of A. J. Berger against Leonard Kyler, action on notes for purchase money on lands sold to defendant, was taken up. A verdict was rendered for plaintiff in two thousand seven hundred and thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents.

The trial list in this court being disposed of, the jury was discharged from further attendance with the thanks of the Court.

The Right Thing—The Right Place.

Mr. Editors—I was led by your favorable notice of J. F. Beilstine, and by the testimony of a friend who has dealt with him for more than a year, to try for myself the quality of the various kinds of meat for which he is celebrated. My experience is good proof that Beilstine either at his stand 78 Pittsburgh or 39 Allegheny Market, is, as yo have said, a sure place to get good, and only good beef, mutton, or veal, cut and served exactly as they should be. Try him and be convinced.
